FIRE DAMAGES FRAME HOME IN LITTLESTOWN

Victor L. Reynolds, vice president of the Adams County National Bank in charge of the McSherrystown branch, suffered severe burns of both hands Wednesday night when his home in Littlestown was badly damaged by fire.

Littlestown Fire Chief Richard Stuller tentatively estimated damage to the Reynolds home at $5,000. The living room and dining room on the first floor were badly damaged by the fire, as was the front of the house and porch. Smoke and water caused damage to the second floor of the house.

SMOKE DAMAGE

There was smoke damage to the apartment in the rear of the house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. McMaster. Mr. McMaster is employed at the Littlestown Esso Servicenter.

Chief Stuller said he is continuing his search into the cause of the fire today.

Mr. Reynolds, his wife and two children, had gone to bed in the second floor of the house about 10:20. About 15 minutes later Mrs. Reynolds said she smelled "something hot—not smoke—but heat." Mr. Reynolds commented that everything had been all right when he turned off the television set in the living room a few minutes before, but Mrs. Reynolds said she believed she would investigate.

When she opened the door from the stairway to the kitchen she found the room filled with smoke and flames starting to eat into the kitchen.

AWAKEN CHILDREN

She rushed upstairs and she and Mr. Reynolds awakened the children, Randy, 10, and Wendy, 6, and assisted them through the smoke-filled kitchen to safety. Enroute, Mr. Reynolds opened a closet in an attempt

STUDENTS RIOT AS PARK PLANS TALKS IN TOKYO

By C. S. CHIN
SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—More than 42,000 students demonstrated in 10 Korean cities today against the government's negotiations to normalize relations with Japan, but President Chang Hee Park vowed to continue the talks in Tokyo no matter how many turn out.

Backed by armed troops, Park went on the air with an appeal for calm in the face of the biggest outpouring of students since the public rioting brought down President Syngman Rhee in April 1960.

But he stressed that the diplomatic talks in Tokyo will continue and he promised to settle differences with Japan, Korea's overlord for 36 years until the end of World War II, "only on terms most favorable to us."

As he made the radio broadcast, 20,000 students surged through the streets of Seoul chanting anti-Japanese slogans, and denouncing South Korea's Japan policy as "humiliating diplomacy." An estimated 22,000 others clogged the streets of nine smaller cities.

TROOPS CONTROL CROWD
Most of the demonstrations were peaceful, but in Seoul several hundred students tried to break through barricades across approaches to the presidential palace. Steel-helmeted troops drove them back with swinging rifle butts. Several students were injured.

The students, most of them of high school age, only got a half mile from the hillside palace. The negotiations to normalize relations between Japan and South Korea have been dragging on for years, but recently Park and Japanese Premier Hayato Ikeda have been making a determined effort to bring them to a successful conclusion.

NEW MOON SHIP REPLICA LOOKS LIKE UGLY BUG

A. P. Science Writer
BETHPAGE, N.Y. (AP)—A full-scale wooden model of America's moonship was put on display today and it looks like an ugly bug.
It is designed to carry two astronauts to a landing on the moon for a 24-hour visit there, and then return to a mother ship circling the moon for the voyage back to earth.
Officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and half a dozen astronauts, some of whom may be future pilots, have been checking the design and systems for the moonship for several days. NASA officials said they had approved the design to go ahead and begin producing actual craft for testing and future flights.

BUILT BY GRUMMAN
The moonship is LEM, meaning lunar excursion module in space-age jargon. It is being built by Grumman Aircraft Engineering Corp. under a $390-million NASA contract.
On close-up inspection, newsmen and photographers were surprised at its size, compared with the little Mercury capsule which carried U.S. astronauts on their first journeys around the earth.
LEM stands 22 feet high and 10 feet across.
The bottom half, with four un-gainly legs ending in pods as feet, is intended to land gently on the moon, with two astronauts egressed in the bug-shaped upper portion.
On takeoff from the moon, the bottom half will be its launch pad and will be left behind.

Hi Court Voids Fair Trade Act

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pennsylvania Supreme Court declared unconstitutional today the state Fair Trade Act of 1935.

In a 5-2 decision, the high court ruled the act unconstitutional on grounds that it gave manufacturers the power of the legislature.

The court ruled on a decision of Judge Samuel A. Weiss of the Allegheny County Common Pleas Court on Sept. 3, 1963.

The court reversed Judge Weiss who had merely ruled that he had to abide by the act as it was law.

The case reached the state Supreme Court on an appeal by White Cross Stores, Inc., which had been sued by Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp.
In the case before Judge Weiss Olin Mathieson had obtained an injunction against White Cross, preventing them from selling Squibb products at prices less than the corporation had established as minimum in fair trade contracts.

SAYS SENATOR IS PROMOTING APPEASEMENT

By BARRY SCHWEID
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican national chairman, William E. Miller, charges Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., with promoting appeasement.
"The course Sen. Fulbright advocates is the same road which Neville Chamberlain traveled in the 1930's," Miller said in a statement today. "It is a course which Republicans will oppose now as they have opposed it in the past."

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called on the Johnson administration and the nation Wednesday to abandon "old myths" and face up to "the new realities of our time."

URGES CUBA MOVE

He called for prompt revision of the Panama Canal Treaty and a new attitude toward Cuba — viewing its Communist Prime Minister Fidel Castro as a nuisance but not a grave threat to the United States.

Miller did not use the word appeasement in his attack on Fulbright. But there could be no other implication to the reference to Chamberlain, the pre-World War II British prime minister who acceded to Germany's territorial demands on its neighbors.

Miller said Fulbright's remarks — a 70-minute speech titled "Old Myths and New Realities" delivered to an almost empty Senate chamber — set the stage for the foreign policy debate in the 1964 campaign.
"This is a trial balloon which the Johnson administration is sending up to prepare public opinion for the acceptance of a foreign policy that could lead only to disaster for the United States and other free nations," said Miller, a New York congressman.

"WORTH CONSIDERING"
White House sources described Fulbright's speech as very interesting and with many items worthy of consideration. The sources said Fulbright had not discussed it in advance with any member of the administration and that "specifically on Cuba and Panama it does not represent the policy of the administration."

Miller said the real myths in Fulbright's speech were his assumptions that the Soviet Union has "drawn back" from aggressive policies, that "the nature of the Chinese Communist threat" has changed and that more trade with Communist nations will "strengthen the foundations of peace."

Air Conditioning Increases Value

Home finance experts agree that central air conditioning is a wise investment not only in terms of added comfort and health insurance, but also in what it does to maintain or increase the home's resale value. This view is held also by the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association whose members have installed nearly a million tons of year-round gas air conditioning mostly in residential units combining both heating and cooling. In fact, GAMA predicts that long before the end of this decade homes without air conditioning will become difficult to sell.

Dessert for a Chinese supper? Garnish rings of pineapple (fresh or canned) with preserved kumquats. If you buy a jar of the kumquats that is about one-pound, you can count on there being a couple of dozen kumquats in it. Use as many as needed and refrigerate the rest of the fruit in the syrup in the jar.

Outside Faucet For Hot Water

A new outside hot water tap that connects with a gas water heater is becoming popular as a means of cleaning up hands, tools and boots before they track mud into the house.

Other uses are for a hose connection to temper the water in small lawn swimming pools and for car washing. Incidentally, the new tap contains a valve that drains off water to a point inside the house where it will be protected from sudden frost.

Last year more than 150,000 homeowners took advantage of the fact that it takes less than a day to switch a central heating system from solid or liquid fuel to clean-burning natural gas. It's done by having a gas conversion burner inserted into the firebox of the existing heating unit. After the conversion there is no further need for fuel tanks, bins or janitorial tools. Your local gas company or heating contractor can make all the arrangements.

Druids decked their halls with boughs of holly to shelter sylvan spirits threatened by frost and winter winds.

What Do You Tell Pollster When He Rings Your Bell And Asks, "Do You Use Soap?"

The whole country seems to be fighting to survive surveys.

Every time the door bell rings it's another pollster, asking if your television set is on or off? Does your husband play the horses? Do you do your laundry in hot or cold water? And what do you think of medicare, unemployment compensation or some new cat food?

Naturally, if a woman has any pride at all, she won't admit that she's never heard of it. She'll pretend that she is only a cut beneath being an authority and will hedge the issue with intelligent sophistication. She will "prefer not to make a statement at this time," or "well, as a matter of fact, as I see it," or "truthfully, I'm not in a position at this time to say." If it's something with which she's vaguely familiar she will try to recall a comment published recently by some recognized authority.

If she's never heard of it she'll pretend she was caught off guard and will have to think about it for a bit. Then she'll launch into a devious campaign of picking clean the mind of the pollster in an effort to find out what her neighbors told him.

SEEK OPINION

The opinions of homemakers throughout the country these days are being coveted by surveyors from all sorts of self-appointed dogooders who claim they want to "make the community strong." They are bent on revolution. Everything has been wrong with everything, but now that they're here, there shall be improvement.

There is too much poverty, too many unpainted houses, not enough groceries, not enough fresh fish in the meat cases, too many cars, not enough parking lots, no public rest rooms, too many people on the streets, not enough attractions for the local populace, too many signs, not enough street lights and myriad other short comings.

HE DOESN'T KNOW

And to get the answers to these problems, the pollsters have come to the right place. They tenaciously report the comments of the individual who never uses a public rest room, goes out of town to shop, has no idea how taxes are levied, couldn't care less about who are school directors and has no conception of local government.

There are the fellows who complain that what this town needs is better zoning laws, revised zoning laws, new building codes, more pressure in the electric lines and more information about council members. These are things they want despite the fact that neither zoning laws nor building codes exist. They are determined to improve things they don't know they don't have.

But there's nothing really to worry about. As long as the pollsters stop by to talk to us we should be grateful. And as long as we give them some kind of an answer, they'll keep coming, so the ball keeps spinning.

Former Bootlegger Is Out For Sheriff

ANTLERS, Okla. (AP) — A candidate for sheriff of Pushmataha County says that, just as he once ran "one of the largest and most modern liquor stills" in the state, he's determined to "have the very best of all possible law enforcement."

Ernest Moore, the Democratic candidate for sheriff, says in a leaflet on his candidacy: "I do not contend to be an angel." The leaflet says he was "convicted of concealing one of the largest and most modern stills ever seized in the state of Oklahoma."

"It was wrong and I repent for my wrongdoings. Even though it was illegal I had the best. If I am elected to the sheriff's office, I will be determined to have the very best of all possible law enforcement."

Recall Bike Hike To G-burg In 1917

A double-page feature in Sunday's Pittsburgh Press under the title of "The Big Bike Hike" told of a 450-mile bicycle trip two Pittsburghers made with a group of boys to Harrisburg and back via Gettysburg.

The memorable trip was recalled for a staff writer by Harold Boone, a Sheraden, Pa., bank teller, and Ross S. Roberts, coordinator for the quarter sessions court in Pittsburgh. The trip which took a day over two weeks was made over the Lincoln Highway to Gettysburg and only a few sections had been blacktopped by that time. It was mostly dirt and gravel surface.

Most of the 28 boys who made the trip were members of a Turtle Creek Boy Scout troop. The boys camped on the Gettysburg College campus, they recalled, and made a five-hour conducted tour of the battlefield here. They also went through the capitol building at Harrisburg. Boone and Ross are neighbors but they have lost track of others in the hiking party. "Perhaps we can have a reunion," Ross said.

GAS SERVICE TO ST. JOSEPH IS TURNED ON

A new gas line to the Central House at St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, was opened Tuesday afternoon, and construction of mains through the streets of the town to serve local residents will begin immediately. C. E. Martin, vice president of the Emmitsburg Gas Co., said today.

The seven-mile line was installed from the main line on old Rt. 15 five miles south of Gettysburg at the Blue and Grey cabins. Construction was started in November, and was completed at a cost of $200,000.

The six-inch line was laid through Emmitsburg. Lines will be installed to service approximately 100 homes in the borough by midsummer. The lines carry 50 pounds of pressure per square inch to provide satisfactory service to customers, Martin said. The company has started construction of a metering and regulating station at the connection on Rt. 15. Gas is supplied by Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., Pittsburgh. The parent organization of the Emmitsburg Gas Co., which was incorporated under Maryland laws and is approved by the Maryland Public Service Commission, is Penn Fuel Gas, Inc., Oxford, Pa.

Martin said that the Emmitsburg company has arranged for budget financing for installation and appliances for residents of the town, and will provide heating fuel to consumers on monthly installments.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Falls From Fence Fracturing Skull: Richard F. Yingling, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Yingling, 55 East Railroad street, is a patient in the Warner hospital as the result of a fractured skull received in a fall Thursday afternoon about 5 o'clock. His condition was described as being as good as can be expected today.

The youngster was injured when he fell from the iron fence store building and the Gettysburg National Bank.

John Horner Gets Medal, Promotion: John Horner, son of Register and Recorder and Mrs. Winfield G. Horner, Gettysburg R.D., has been promoted to corporal, his family learned today.

Cpl. Horner, who is stationed at Washington, D. C., with the Adjutant General's Division, Headquarters, Air Transport Command, at the same time was awarded the good conduct medal for a year's service.

Local Captain Is Married In South Tuesday: Announcement was made today of the marriage of Captain Edmund W. Thomas Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas Sr., West Lincoln avenue, to Miss Mary Ruth King, daughter of Mrs. J. C. Donahoe and the late J. R. King, of Frostproof, Florida, on Tuesday, March 21, at 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Lieutenant Philip Johnson, USNR, in the First Baptist church at Fort Pierce, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. King, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, were the attendants.

The bride graduated from the Frostproof high school and the Southern high school and the Southern School of Commerce, at Orlando, Florida. She had been secretary to the Commanding Officer of the 95th Sub-depot at Hendricks Field, Seabring, Florida.

Captain Thomas graduated from Gettysburg high school and Gettysburg college. He is a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity. He entered the Air Corps in September, 1940, and received his commission at Barksdale Field, La., in April, 1941.

The couple will be at home after May 15 at the Ivy Court apartments, Seabring, Florida.

The newlyweds arrived in Gettysburg Friday evening for a week's visit with the bridegroom's parents.

Closing Shop To Go In Navy: The Hotel Eberhart barber shop in the basement of the hotel building at the corner of North Washington and Chambersburg street, will close its doors "until victory" Wednesday evening with the proprietor, Harold Y. Cromwell, and Lester P. Davis, employed there as a barber, planning to return after the war and go into business again at the old stand.

Mr. Cromwell, who resides at 516 West Middle street, has volunteered for duty in the Navy and both he and Mrs. Davis, who is being inducted, have received orders to report for Navy duty next Monday. Davis has two children and Cromwell one son. The Davises live at 108 Carlisle street.

When Mr. Cromwell locks up his shop Wednesday evening it will mark the end of a 50-year period during which a barber shop has been operated in those rooms. Mr. Cromwell, who has been barbering for nearly 22 years, began work in this shop 18 years ago Sunday. He worked four years previously in Chambersburg. Five years ago he bought the shop

Today's Talk

NEW PATHS
Interests are what keep us alive and active. Let them die out of our lives and we become mere idlers on the sidelines. All our habits are wound up with these interests of ours. But if we limit these habits, never striking out into new paths, we are bound to lose much that feeds that great quality — incentive.

It is not easy to break any long-time habit, nor is it easy to form a new one but, as William James has said: "It is surprising how soon a desire will die of inanition if it be never fed." It is well to review these many habits that have grown upon us, see if we cannot eliminate some that keep us in a rut, and select new paths. It is interesting to know that the same cells in our brain that form old habits may be used to form new ones.

No matter what our regular daily work may be, many of our waking hours should be given over to various enterprises, so as to keep the brain stimulated and quickly responsive to new ideas and new interests. Each of us should have a little of the vagabond in us, so that we might wander away from ourselves and find new acquaintances to round out our lives.

One reason why so many people lose interest in life is that they have tied themselves to too many habits and interests that have dulled their minds and jaded their bodies. We all need change and a taste of new pursuits. New paths are always strewn with possible excitement, without which no path would be worth while.

The new job is always packed with more stimulation than the old one. The field of knowledge is so vast that there is no limit to its many paths. No education is ever complete. There is no excuse for anyone ever to become bored with life. There are too many untried paths over which to tread and learn.

It is said of a newspaperman, "Once a newspaper man, always a newspaper man." It is easy to understand why — there is always a new path to travel over. There is stimulation all the way, and into every day. Dare to strike out into new paths.

THE VICIOUS CIRCLE
More's the simple lesson which the world today is learning. The man who keeps from spending keeps another man from earning.

When a man to please his lady buys a diamond-studded collar, The man who shape such trinkets gets a chance to earn a dollar.

When a woman goes out shopping, though at home her husband rages, There another woman somewhere glad to get her husband's wages.

If we practice self-denial 'gainst a dreaded rainy season, There are children who will suffer for the very self-same reason.

If we've money and won't use it for our needs or our enjoyment, We're just keeping other people from their regular employment.

We are living in a circle — on each other we're depending, For each man who isn't earning there's a man who isn't spending.

Vendors Ordered To Serve Sentences

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two brothers, who were sentenced to prison last Sept. 30 for failing behind in payment of $10,000 fines for income tax violations, have been served with bench warrants to start serving prison sentences for violation of probation.

Last September Judge Body sentenced David to 18 months and Reuben to 30 months. The U.S. Court of Appeals upheld the sentences on March 5. On March 20, the 15-day period expired in which the men could have asked the U.S. Supreme Court to review the case.

DOUBTING THOMAS

After the crucifixion, the eleven Apostles huddled together behind locked doors, fearing the mob that had killed Jesus.

Christ suddenly appeared in their midst, saying "peace be with you."

The Apostle Thomas, who was not there at the time, refused to believe it. "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe."

When Jesus again visited the Apostles behind locked doors, Thomas was among them. Jesus said to him: "Bring here thy finger and see My hands; and bring here thy hand and put it into My side."

Thomas answered, "My Lord and my God."

But Jesus said to him, "Because thou hast seen Me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen and yet have believed." (John XX:29)

BAPTISTS SEE CHALLENGE IN LBJ'S SPEECH

By TOM CHASE
Associated Press Writer

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Southern Baptists see both a challenge and what they termed an attempt to coerce the people into backing a move for more federal power in President Johnson's appeal for support of a strong civil rights bill.

The response was divided and varied from region to region. The President told a Southern Baptist leadership seminar in Washington Wednesday that the civil rights cause "demands prophets in our time, men of compassion and truth, unafraid of the consequences of fulfilling their faith."

MAY BRING ACTION
James Duncan of Washington, editor of the church publication Capital Baptist, said most of those present felt Johnson's statement might move Southern Baptists to do more about the problem.

"Everyone there seemed to feel he hit the nail right on the head and gave us a challenge," Duncan said.

"One hates to think the President should have to remind a denominational religious group what their responsibility is but perhaps it was needed," Duncan added.

SOME CONTRADICTION

Some Baptist leaders in Alabama didn't think so, however. Dr. George E. Bagley, executive secretary of the Baptist Executive Board, and Dr. Leon Macon, president of the Alabama Baptist State Convention, said in a joint statement:

"Our President is obviously trying to coerce the people in the nation into backing his move to enlarge federal power to the point where our freedom to choose our associates and neighbors will be placed in the hands of the bureaucrats."

"We cannot in good conscience endorse this bill. We urge the 750,000 Baptists in Alabama to study its inherent dangers, and decide for themselves."

Jacksonville Boycott Opens

By DON MCKEE

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A boycott of Jacksonville businesses which impose restrictions on Negroes was started today by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The NAACP called for retaliation against "Jim Crow merchants" even as a group of white and Negro leaders groped for a way out of the city's four-day-old racial crisis.

"Spend your money only where you are respected," Rutledge Pearson, city and state NAACP president, told a Wednesday night meeting of the organization.

The boycott was approved by the largest chapter turnout in recent months, against all businesses except those selling food and medicine.

The violence which left one Negro woman dead and several persons injured showed signs of subsiding, although one gang attack on a white man and a fire bomb incident were reported on Wednesday night.

STOCKS ADVANCE

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market advanced steadily early this afternoon in heavy trading. Gains of most key stocks were moderate but buying pervaded many sections of the list.

The cigarette stocks made fairly substantial gains for this depressed group, some of the advances going to a point or more.

Steels were active and fractionally higher. Motors were unchanged to a bit higher.

FIVE COUNTY NURSERIES ARE RECERTIFIED

Worley's Nursery and the York Springs Nursery, both York Springs; Slaybaugh Brothers' Nursery and the Adams County Nursery, both of Aspers, and Boyer's Nursery, Biglerville R. 2, are among the major Pennsylvania nurseries that produce planting stock for orchards and vineyards that have been recertified for 1964 by the State Department of Agriculture following inspections in which they were found to be free of plant disease and injurious insects.

Henry F. Nixon, director of the Bureau of Plant Industry, said the nurseries were checked by William L. Yount, state plant pathologist, and Everett F. Quackenbush, nursery inspector.

ARE PEST FREE

Both tops and roots were found to be pest free in a dozen species including apple, peach, pear, plum, nectarine, sour cherry, sweet cherry, apricot and quince, both standard stock and dwarf varieties; also nut trees, grapes and blueberries in small fruits.

Nixon said locally grown stock affords growers a number of advantages, and that patronage of these suppliers helps the economy of these areas and the whole state.

Local nursery stock, he pointed out, is produced where sold and adapted to Pennsylvania soil and climatic conditions; it can be examined before purchased, and dug and delivered fresh without loss of vigor from shipping or storage.

Dwarf fruit trees, Nixon noted, are well suited for suburban backyards since they have ornamental as well as practical value; they need little space and are easy to prune, spray and harvest.

NATION EYES TORNADO BELT FOR TWISTERS

By ED L. CAMPBELL

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—A small army of weather-conscious men and women, both amateurs and professionals, is beginning to keep eyes on the skies in tornado alley.

Tornado alley is that area of the midcontinent that stretches from West Texas northeastward to the Canadian border. Over the years more twisters have been reported in this area than anywhere else in the country. Eastern Kansas and western Missouri are in the heart of the alley.

SPORT TORNADOES

Officials in the Kansas City Weather Bureau explained preparations for spotting tornadoes and issuing warnings to residents this spring in an area roughly bounded by Sioux City, Iowa; Hastings, Neb.; Russell, Kan.; Tulsa, Okla.; Fayetteville Ark., and the Mississippi River.

April, May and June are the worst tornado months. The past nine years the Kansas City Bureau has issued from three to five tornado forecasts a month in a 200-mile area, said Bob Baskins, supervisor of guidance forecasting in a news conference Wednesday.

STORM WARNINGS

The government agency issues a tornado forecast whenever conditions indicate the likelihood of tornadoes or severe thunderstorms. It issues a tornado warning only after a confirmed tornado has been sighted on the ground.

The Kansas City Weather Bureau has a staff of 117 volunteer sky watchers located about five miles apart around the city. Other bureaus, such as Sedalia and Columbia, Mo.; Wichita and Topeka, Kan., have from one to 50 observers.

GARY PETERS WAS GOING TO BE TEACHER

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—Left-hander Gary Peters of the Chicago White Sox, American League Rookie of the Year, was headed for a school teaching job when he suddenly turned into an absent-minded professor into the pitching sensation of the 1963 season.

"I had forgotten my fast ball," Peters explained. "I had been working so hard on a curve ball and a slider in the minors that I changed my motion a little. I not only lost my fast ball—I began to forget how hard I could throw."

As cutdown day drew near, Peters had an 0-2 record and was in jeopardy of being sent back to the minors for the fifth time with his options all used. WON 11 STRAIGHT

"It's hard to say now just what I would have done," said Peters. "I might have quit. It all depends on what had happened. If someone else picked me up, I probably would have finished the year with them and then decided. But for a while I sure felt I'd be teaching school."

Then more or less everything came together," Peters continued against Kansas City. I started throwing hard and now I had the curve and slider to go with it and everything went good."

Things went so good that from July 11 to August 29 Peters won 11 straight games. The 26-year-old southpaw finished the season with a 19-8 record and a league-leading 2.33 earned run average. Then he topped it all off by edging teammate Pete Ward for rookie laurels.

Peters was slowed somewhat this spring by an inflamed tend but now is back in form, working once again on the methodical motion that apparently baffles batters. He has sort of a hesitation stop just before he fires toward the plate that gives him an awkward-appearing style.

B-L League Will Meet On Monday

The league membership includes American Legion, Elks, Eagles, Exchange Club, Kiwanis Club and Phillips 66.

RED AUERBACH IS MAN WITH GREAT ENERGY

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP)—Red Auerbach is a man of immense energy who maintains many basketball coaches do an incomplete job.

"A coach is mistaken if he thinks he can leave the game on the court and in the dressing room," says the most successful drill-master in National Basketball Association history.

"A winning athlete is a happy man," explains the boss of the Boston Celtics. "Players have problems like everyone else—finances, a coming baby, good education for their kids, a future after playing."

"That's why I'm in my office early every day when we're home, even if there isn't a game. The boys know I'm available. I've been consulted on everything from investment possibilities to morning sickness."

The father of teen-age daughters, Auerbach leaves his family in their Washington, D.C., home during the season "because the suitcase-hotel room-airplane life wouldn't be fair to them."

In business, Auerbach is an executive of a packaging concern and runs a summer camp. At 47 Red admits he's getting tired of the hectic pace but has not yet found anything to take the place of the game he loves.

Although it appears he may be referring to a referee's ancestry, Auerbach says he's only demanding fair calls.

Auerbach is his own chief talent scout who carries much of his basketball empire in mental notes. He is also a realist.

"One of my hobbies is helping youngsters get into college," admits Red. "I've had some success and it's a nice feeling."

"Hey, you better not print that. They might think I'm human."

AHL WESTERN RACE IS TIGHT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pittsburgh, Cleveland or Rochester. Take your pick. Any one of the three can win the Western Division title in the American Hockey League.

Cleveland closed in on Pittsburgh with a 5-0 shutout over Providence Wednesday night while the Hornets lost to Hershey 4-2.

This gave the Barons 77 points to Pittsburgh's 76 while Rochester is third at 76. Cleveland and Pittsburgh each have two games left before the regular season ends Sunday. Rochester has three, including tonight's game at Baltimore.

Buffalo came from behind a 3-1 deficit to beat Springfield 4-3 in overtime in Wednesday's other scheduled AHL game. Doug Robinson's goal after 1:26 of the overtime was the winner after Barry Cullen's second goal had tied the score for the Bisons midway of the third period.

Jean Guy Morrissette filled in ably in the nets for injured goalie Les Binkley as Cleveland scored its shutout on home ice. Four of the Barons goals came while Providence had a player in the penalty box.

PROBERS TOLD UNDERWORLD'S HAND AT RING

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators continue today their probe of professional boxing spurred by reports of underworld figures still hanging around dethroned world heavyweight champion Sonny Liston.

Scheduled to appear before the Senate antitrust subcommittee were Gordon B. Davidson, attorney for the Louisville, Ky., citizens group that sponsors Cassius Clay, and Bob Nilon, brother of Jack Nilon, Liston's business adviser.

Jack Nilon told the hearing Wednesday that he asked no questions when Liston said he wanted to sign over valuable stock to Sam Margolis, a Philadelphia vending machine operator and close friend of Liston for years.

ENTITLED TO STOCK
Margolis, according to previous testimony, once owned an apartment house jointly with racketeer Frank (Blinky) Palermo.

Nilon said he thought Margolis was entitled to the stock for setting up a deal for promoting Liston's fights. He said that under the arrangement between Margolis and Liston the fighter was to receive a half interest in their joint firm. However, Liston apparently signed over more than half of his shares to Margolis without any compensation.

Nilon said Liston told him that was the way he wanted it.

SEND FOR BARONE
Nilon also told the committee that Joe Pep Barone, an underworld figure who once managed Liston, was sent for by the fighter before his bout with Clay.

Davidson wound up Wednesday's session before the committee by outlining the contract under which Clay operates with the Louisville group backing him. Davidson said that as a result of the revelations of hearings held by the Senate subcommittee in 1960, which disclosed that Liston's contract at that time was controlled by underworld figures, the Louisville group was determined to get Clay — a home town boy who had just won an Olympic boxing championship — off to a good start as a professional.

WEST IS GIVEN SLIGHT EDGE FOR SATURDAY

By KESLO STURGEON

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The presence of All-America Dave Stallworth, rugged Jim Barnes and towering Mel Counts has installed the West as a slight favorite in Saturday's East-West College All-Star basketball game.

Slats Gill of Oregon State, who will coach the West, probably will build his offense for the All-Star game around this trio. Stallworth, a 6-foot-7 forward from Wichita, has shown the form that won him Most Valuable Player honors in the Missouri Valley Conference the past two seasons.

EAST ALSO TALENTED
Barnes, 6-8 pivotman from Texas Western, and Counts, a 7-footer from Oregon State, also have looked impressive in practice. Both guard the basket like a mother hen protecting her chicks.

The East will counter with some fine talent, headed by two All-Americans, Cotton Nash of Kentucky and Bill Bradley of Princeton, and Jeff Mullins of Duke.

The West will carry a big height advantage into the nationally televised contest, with only three of its 10 players standing under 6-6. The East has only two men over 6-5 — John Thompson, 6-10, of Providence, and Fred Hetzel, 6-8, of Davidson.

UNDER OLYMPIC RULES
The afternoon contest will be played under Olympic rules. This means the free throw lane will be wider, a player must shoot the ball within 30 seconds and during the last five minutes of the game, all fouls result in two shots.

The contest, sponsored by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, is played for the benefit of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame at Springfield, Mass.

160 TAKE FIELD IN AZALEA OPEN GOLF TOURNEY

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—Heavy rain forced postponement today of the opening round of the Azalea Open Golf Tournament and brought rescheduling of the final round to Monday.

Fifty-four players in the field of about 150 were on the Cape Fear Country Club course when play was suspended by officials as the rain that began shortly after midnight persisted.

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—The touring golfers, showing signs of easing the grip of the game's Big Three, opened a two-week stand in North Carolina today with the start of the $20,000 Azalea Open Tournament.

After the four-day 72-hole test over the sandy 6,744 yards of the par 72 Cape Fear Country Club here they move to Greensboro for the $35,000 Greater Greensboro Open, last stop before the Masters at Augusta.

As the Azalea tournament field of 160 begins the first of four assaults on the Cape Fear course, an unprecedented streak of non-repeat winners is intact.

DIFFERENT STORY
It's been five months and 14 tournaments on the major circuit since the same man won twice and he wasn't a member of the big three composed of Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

Mason Rudolph, who won at New Orleans early this month, scored at Fresno, Calif. last Oct. 27. Since then 14 tournaments, 11 this year, have produced 14 different winners.

At this time last year, 11 tournaments had been played in the same order as this year, and there were nine winners—Palmer and eight others. He won three winter tournaments last year. To date this year he's been second and twice tied for third in his best finishes.

BREAKING AWAY
In 11 tournaments this year, 44 men have finished in the top five at least once with only four making as many as three such finishes. A year ago for the same tournaments 40 had first five finishes, eight making it at least three times.

Thus, it appears, that the pack may be in the process of breaking away from the domination of the Big Three, none of whom is entered here.

Billy Casper, No. 5 money winner this year after picking up a $7,500 check at Miami, Fla. last Sunday, and Tony LeMay, Tommy Jacobs and Bruce Devlin are the 1964 winners in the Azalea field.

NEW YORK (AP)—T.V. Fanatic, the guy who just loves to switch television channels to watch as many sports events as possible, is going to have himself a field day next fall.

In late September and early October he'll have his pick of major league baseball, the Davis Cup tennis matches, the Olympics, professional and college football games, boxing bouts, wrestling matches, thoroughbred racing and professional hockey, basketball and bowling.

Here are the sounds that might come from the TV set when Mr. Fanatic is in his best form (switch indicates our man has turned to another channel): "Gubner heaves a long one."

LAKERS STILL ALIVE IN WEST; EDGE ST. LOUIS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Los Angeles Lakers still are alive in the Western Division semifinal playoffs in the National Basketball Association. Elgin Baylor's shot from 20 feet out with just one second on the clock gave the Lakers a 107-105 victory over the St. Louis Hawks Wednesday night and forced a fourth game in Los Angeles Saturday in the best-of-5 series. The Hawks had won the first two games at St. Louis last weekend.

The Cincinnati Royals, back on their home court, whipped the Philadelphia 76ers in the other playoff game Wednesday and took a 2-1 lead in the Eastern Division semifinals. The fourth game is scheduled Saturday at Philadelphia.

The home court advantage, which has stood up in all six playoff games so far, nearly failed the Lakers as the Hawks overcame a 16-point deficit and tied the score at 105-105 in the last minute on a Mike Farmer steal and basket.

The Lakers lost possession on the pass-in but Charlie Vaughn's shot was blocked and the Lakers got the ball again with 11 seconds left. After a time out Baylor got the ball and waited until the last second before getting off his winning shot. Baylor finished with 23 points, compared to 39 for Jerry West who sparked the Lakers to an early 31-15 lead.

WALTER BOND LEADS COLTS TO 4-3 WIN

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Walter Bond is a conditional Houston Colt. That, some may say, is better than being a full-fledged Colt. He still has a chance to get away if he's bad enough.

But Walter doesn't agree. That, he says, is better than being a Cleveland Indian, and he's putting all of his 6-foot-6 and 240 pounds into being good enough to stay that way.

The Colts purchased Bond from Cleveland during the winter on a conditional basis. Now he's making a strong bid to start the season in the Houston outfield.

TWO-RUN HOMER
He powered a two-run homer in the seventh inning Wednesday, boosting the Colts to a 4-3 triumph over Detroit. Until now the 26-year-old Tennessee native has been good enough to play in only 90 games since he first reached the major leagues in 1960.

"They never game me a chance," Bond contends. "They just kept me in the minors."

Bond's major league appearances dwindled each year he was with the Indians. He played in 40 games in 1960, 38 in 1961 and 12 in September, 1962. Despite six home runs and 17 runs batted in during his briefest sojourn, he didn't see much other than Jacksonville of the International League last year.

FREEZE HOMER WINS
Bond's winning blow was only one of several along the exhibition trail Wednesday. Gene Freeze's two-run blast in the sixth inning carried Pittsburgh to a 5-4 victory against Baltimore.

The Los Angeles Angels halted Cleveland 2-0 on Dick Simpson's two-run homer in the sixth.

A couple of award-winning pitchers were thumped. Milwaukee jumped on Sandy Koufax for three runs in the first three innings and went on for an 8-3 triumph against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Minnesota gave Gary Peters similar treatment, pelting him for five runs in the first three innings enroute to a 7-5 victory over the Chicago White Sox. Koufax was the National League's Most Valuable Player and Peters the American League's Rookie of the Year.

Wilson minimized his ailment and said he was looking forward to the Olympic Games in October in Tokyo.

Northern Dancer Is Strong Favorite

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Canadian-born Northern Dancer became a strong favorite today to win the $100,000 Florida Derby April 4 while Dandy K. moved up on the basis of his performance in the Fountain of Youth Stakes.

Dandy K., winner of his last race at Gulfstream Park at 1 1-16 miles, was last for one-quarter mile in the Fountain of Youth Wednesday and was eighth after six furlongs. He put on a blistering run through the stretch to beat Roman Brother by one length.

It was Dandy K.'s second straight win at this distance after he ran a dead heat for fifth with Roman Brother in the Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah March 3.

On that day each carried 122 pounds. In the Fountain of Youth Roman Brother carried 122, while Dandy K. had only 112.

MONTREAL'S HOPES HIGH

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Montreal's Canadiens, with a revived Bernie Geoffrion raring to go, hope to start the defending champion Toronto Maple Leafs on their way out of the Stanley Cup playoffs tonight.

The Canadiens, fresh from capturing the National Hockey League's regular season title, host the Maple Leafs in the first game of their best-of-seven semifinal series. Detroit meets the Black Hawks at Chicago in the start of the other semifinal series.

Toronto has won the Stanley Cup the last two years. But the Canadiens are favored to oust the Leafs, who finished third in the regular season.

Geoffrion, a 33-year-old veteran, possibly has been the most impressive player in Montreal's workouts, shooting, checking and skating spiritedly.

Geoffrion was a clutch player during the season. He scored nine winning goals, including the one against New York last Sunday night that gave the Canadiens the crown.

In other games, the Chicago Cubs whipped San Francisco 12-4. Philadelphia whitewashed the New York Mets 10-0. Kansas City swept by St. Louis 10-3 Sox. Koufax was the National League's Most Valuable Player and Peters the American League's Rookie of the Year.

4TH UNIONIST IS ARRESTED IN RAIL BOMBING

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A fourth union member has been arrested in connection with a bombing attempt on the strikebound Florida East Coast Railway.

FBI agents arrested John Katsikos, 40, a part-time college student, father of four children and recording secretary for Local 555 of the Brotherhood of Railroad Carmen, Wednesday.

Katsikos, a car inspector for Florida East Coast railway for 10 years, is charged with attempting to dynamite one of the lines trains two weeks ago.

UNDER $50,000 BOND

He was placed under $50,000 bond Wednesday at a hearing before U.S. Commissioner Roger E. Davis.

"My wife knows I'm arrested and she's doing something about it," was Katsikos' only comment.

The FBI said Katsikos was a part-time student at Barry College and the University of Miami.

The March 12 dynamiting attempt was foiled by an 18-man FBI stakeout at a trestle in Indian River County. Agents, who spotted several men near the tracks, disarmed the 15-stick dynamite bomb shortly before a train arrived.

3 OTHERS NABBED

Later, agents arrested John W. Davis, 23, of Port St. Lucie and Joseph Veiders, 32, of Miami on charges of attempting to dynamite the train. Hugh Winn, 56, also of Miami, was arrested the next day on a conspiracy charge. They are free under $50,000 bonds.

Katsikos, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, was charged with attempted bombing and conspir-

Mexican Boy Will Sing Jewish Prayer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A San Francisco Jewish congregation will hear the ancient prayers of Judaism sung at Passover by a small Mexican Indian boy.

He is Yusua Baltasar Laureano Ramirez-Resendiz, 10, who traces his faith to ancestors forced to flee Spain during the 15th century inquisition.

Since the age of 3, the boy has been chanting Jewish liturgy in a tiny Mexico City synagogue, where his father, a lawyer, serves as lay rabbi.

JOBLESS PAY CLAIMS DROP

HARRISBURG (AP) — The labor and industry department says both initial and continued claims for unemployment compensation benefits decreased in Pennsylvania last week.

In its weekly report issued Wednesday, the department said initial claims totaled 22,599, a drop of 1,234 from the number filed during the previous week. In the same week a year ago 25,131 new claims were reported.

Continued claims last week totaled 176,508, a decrease of 2,206 from the previous week and a drop of 37,793 from a year ago.

William P. Young, secretary of labor and industry, attributed the decline in claims to recalls in the construction, stone-clay-glass and trade industries.

The unemployment compensation fund balance at the end of the week totaled $121,116,375, with $167,861,425 owed the federal government.

All four of the arrested men are members of operating unions which are not on strike but are observing nonoperating union picket lines.

WOMAN WINS DAMAGE AWARD FROM GROCER

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Mrs. Adele B. Nichols, 47, of Springfield, Pa., has been awarded $2,571 in damages from a Hammonton grocery store operator who, she said, had promised to marry her.

Salem County Judge Alvin R. Featherer, sitting in Superior Court without a jury, Wednesday awarded $2,071 in compensatory damages and $500 in punitive damages.

The woman testified she had given Anthony J. Mendolia various amounts of money on the basis of his marriage promises during a two-year courtship.

For the period from June, 1959 to May 1960 when the couple parted until a reconciliation in September, 1960, the judge allowed punitive damages.

He said, however, "after that break-up she should have known him well enough not to rely further on his promises of marriage."

Humane Society Has Battle With Skunk

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — The Missouri Humane Society tangled with a skunk Wednesday at the Weyerhaeuser Co. in St. Louis. The battle continues.

John Daniels, a Weyerhaeuser employee, said the skunk found its way into the space between the outside wall of the building and the inside.

Humane Society officers sprayed ammonia into the space between the walls.

"The skunk sprayed back," Daniels said.

The humane society then set a cage trap between the walls. But the skunk is still free.

Pope Addresses Easter Pilgrims

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI, addressing himself to tourists who flock by the thousands to Rome for Easter, Wednesday urged them to become devout pilgrims too.

Speaking in his weekly general audience, Pope Paul remarked that Easter was approaching.

"We would like to urge you all to take profit of your presence in Rome during this highest Christian holiday and penetrate even better into the spirit of this great liturgical celebration and participate even more deeply to the sentiments, the rites and the mystery of our redemption."

SHORT SUPPLY OF THERAPISTS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dr. C. L. Wilbar Jr., secretary of health, says a shortage of physical therapists has resulted in patients at the Elizabethtown State Hospital for Crippled Children receiving inadequate care and treatment.

In a statement issued Wednesday, Wilbar said the hospital should have five physical therapists on its staff but at the present time there are only two. One of the two, he added, is occupied most with cerebral palsy patients.

"The physical therapists' caseload is presently from 70 to 100 patients per day and should be not more than 20 patients per day," Wilbar said.

He said there are 160 resident patients at the hospital with another 100 children visiting various out-patient clinics at the institution.

Because of the shortage of physical therapists, he said, the hospital is unable to take advantage of a specially built indoor swimming pool.

ETV STATION GIVEN CHECKS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer presented checks totaling $75,000 today to Pittsburgh educational television station WQED.

Accepting in behalf of the station was M. M. Anderson, vice chairman of the board of Metropolitan Pittsburgh Educational Television.

Anderson said the $75,000 covers two grants under the 1963 law authorizing state funds for the development of a Pennsylvania educational television network.

One grant of $50,000 is to assist in the purchase of a new transmitter for Channel 13, he said. The other, $25,000, is to improve the quality of WQED's School Service Program.

The governor's office said this was the first direct state assistance to an established educational TV station. WQED is the first community-owned educational TV station in the nation, Anderson said.

Heart Disease Is Still Top Killer

HARRISBURG (AP) — Live births totaled 221,920 in Pennsylvania last year for a birth rate of 11.1 per 1,000 estimated midyear population, the State Health Department reported Wednesday.

Citing preliminary figures that may be altered with the receipt of more complete data, the department said 126,420 deaths occurred in the state for a death rate of 19.5.

The leading cause of death, according to the incomplete figures, was heart disease which claimed an estimated 53,080 victims. Accidents was fourth on the list of causes, claiming 5,130 lives, including 2,080 motor vehicle fatalities.

The origin of the custom of giving chocolate eggs and rabbits as Easter gifts dates a long way back into history.

Eggs have been used as a sign of the fertility of spring for centuries, the custom dating back to ancient Persia and Egypt. The rabbit, being a prolific animal, is also connected with the return of spring each year, and, since Easter is a spring festival, both egg and rabbit have been grafted on to it.

The rugged old Norse sailors are tied up with the custom. They had a divinity of spring they called Ostera or Eastre—from which the name Easter is derived. The egg and the rabbit were objects symbolic of this divinity, and it wasn't long before people became so confused they believed the rabbit laid a special kind of egg on Easter eve.

The modern candy maker, however, has to start much earlier than the day before Easter. Several months ahead, factories start turning out eggs and rabbits for Easter. Both products are made by a time-honored process that has not been improved upon even in the age of modern technology. Molten chocolate is poured into pewter-plated steel molds and allowed to harden.

Engine Fails On Takeoff; All Safe

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — An Alitalia airliner with 136 passengers aboard screamed to an emergency halt at the end of the runway at Nairobi Airport early today when one engine failed as the jet was about to take off.

The passengers, including many women and children, were evacuated from the DC8 down emergency chutes. Airport firemen sprayed the aircraft with foam.

None of the passengers or 12 crewmen was injured.

How To Stop Bank Robber? Faint

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP) — How do you stop a bank bandit from robbing you a second time?

Bank teller Susan Leroy, 43, fainted.

Miss Leroy told officers she recognized the bandit Wednesday as the same curly-haired gunman who took $520 from her March 11 at Gateway branch of the Bank of America.

She fainted.

The bandit fled empty-handed.

The pewter on the inside of the molds imparts a high gloss and sheen which no other metal is able to supply satisfactorily.

After the chocolate has cooled, the mold is broken open and the finished egg or rabbit is carefully packaged for display.

The same general procedure is followed to create white eggs and rabbits.

EX-NAZI LOSES GRAND CROSS

BONN, Germany (AP) — A high Bonn decoration, awarded to a convicted German war criminal, Wednesday was ordered taken from him after Communist press reports had pointed out his Nazi past.

Former SS Maj. Heinrich Buettelisch had been sentenced by an American war crimes court to six years in prison for using concentration camp inmates as slave laborers. He received the Grand Cross of the Federal Order of Merit last month for helping rebuild German industry.

Then reports on his background were published in the East German Communist press.

West German President Heinrich Lübke, after learning of Buettelisch's wartime record, ordered that the decoration be taken from him.

Measles Epidemic Spreads In Dallas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—An epidemic of measles in Dallas may reach a peak this week or next, City Health Director J. W. Bass says.

Dallas recorded 475 cases of measles last week making a total of 1,260 cases of red measles and 12 of German measles the first 12 weeks of 1964.

The city had only 577 cases during 1963. Dr. Bass said "probably only 30 per cent are not reported or counted." The worst recorded year for measles in Dallas was 1958, with 12,622 cases.

RAIN, SNOW STORMS SWEEP EASTERN AREA

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More thunderstorms, rain, sleet and snow swept wide areas in the eastern half of the nation today in the wake of violent storms which injured more than a score of persons.

Tornadoes skipped across areas in southeast Missouri, northwestern Alabama and Georgia Wednesday as stormy weather erupted in parts of the Midwest and South.

A snowstorm and cold weather hit areas in the Midwest with below zero temperatures and heavy snow in some sections.

TORNADO IN MISSOURI

About 20 persons were injured and three schools, 36 houses and several farm buildings were destroyed by twisters which struck Wayne, Butler and Reynolds counties in southeast Missouri. Among the injured were 13 students and a teacher in a school at tiny Clubb, which was struck by a tornado.

Seven persons were injured when a twister struck in a farm area near Addison, Ala. Several houses were damaged. A small tornado ripped apart a service station in Palmyra, Ga., but no one was hurt.

Heavy rain doused areas in Kentucky, Southern Illinois and Indiana. Tornado winds lashed the Logansport, Ind., area, damaging five airplanes and several farm buildings.

SNOW IN MIDWEST

In the Midwest, more than seven inches of snow covered Green Bay, Wis. Moderate to heavy snow fell in the Dakotas, parts of Iowa, Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois. Light snow was reported in the Great Lakes region. RUBY WOULD TAKE STAND

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Jack Ruby's new chief attorney said today Ruby has agreed to take the stand if he is given a new trial for the slaying of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

Dr. Hubert W. Smith, director of the Law-Science Institute of the University of Texas Law School, became Ruby's chief attorney Tuesday night. Ruby foreman of Houston quit the case because of differences with the Ruby family.

Smith said today he would seek a new trial for Ruby on the basis that Judge Joe B. Brown erred in not transferring Ruby's first trial from Dallas. A Dallas jury sentenced him to death. Ruby did not testify.

Smith, chancellor of the Law-Science Academy of America, said he hopes to "mobilize through the academy" the necessary funds to pay expenses of the new trial.

He said he would not charge for his services. Smith said Ruby is bankrupt and his family is not wealthy.

Replace Furnace With Modern Unit

Are you planning a complete air conditioning treatment for your home?

Where there is an obsolete gravity furnace, or a worn-out forced warm air heating plant, replacement with one of the many top-flight year 'round heating and cooling units is the most economical in the long run.

If you plan to replace a forced air furnace, you'll be able to use existing ductwork. Scrapping your old furnace and streamlining basement ducts may provide you with an "extra" room for any purpose you may choose.

Homes having "wet heat," floor furnace or space heaters can enjoy warm weather cooling with specific cooling-dehumidifying units that are installed with a minimum of ductwork. These usually are connected to an outside refrigerating unit.

Conversion to all-season conditioning can be simple with a forced air furnace that's in good condition. Your professional air-conditioning specialist can advise you as to the most efficient and most economical installation for your purposes.

Catholic Nuns Suffer Few Deaths From Lung Cancer

By FRANK CAREY

Associated Press Science Writer PALM BEACH SHORES, Fla. (AP)—An unprecedented study of the health records among thousands of Roman Catholic nuns throughout the country indicates that the incidence of cancer—and distribution of its site of occurrence—among nuns is different "from that of their fellow women of America."

The evidence suggests the difference is due to their way of life.

SEMINAR REPORT

This was reported today to the sixth annual seminar for science writers sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

Dr. James T. Nix of New Orleans, La., said the study was aimed primarily at collecting and verifying the cause of death of nuns from 262 communities with a nun population of 116,173, during 1963.

It was felt, he said, that "comparison with known data on the cause of death of lay women over 20 years of age in the United States will clarify the relationship of celibacy, abstinence from alcohol and cigarette smoking, and other environmental factors to the type of cancer causing death in women."

STUDIED 1,116 DEATHS

Describing today's report as preliminary, Dr. Nix said it is based on 1,116 deaths among the 116,173 nuns, and a study of various other things such as the frequency of lung cancer and of gallstones.

Among the findings: 1. A confirmation of previous, undocumented impressions that nuns rarely get cancer of the cervix, the entrance of the womb. The theory is, said Dr.

PLAN SCHOOL MEET APRIL 13

The State Council of Education has set April 13 for a hearing with officials of the Bonneville School District for the purpose of discussing the formation of an independent school district for the borough. Attorney Eugene M. Hartman told members of the Bonneville borough council Tuesday evening.

The highway committee was authorized to survey part of Walters Road extending from the borough into Mt. Pleasant Twp. for the purpose of annexing the extension to the borough. The road has been maintained by the borough and repairs to the extension will be made after the survey is completed. The highway committee also was authorized to purchase and erect warning signs to peddlers at either end of the borough, reminding them of the ordinance requiring peddlers' licenses.

Mrs. Marcia L. Staub, secretary-treasurer, reported treasury balances of $1,555.97 in the general fund, $705.09 in the light fund, $897.19 in the highway fund and $3,000 in deposit certificates. Deposits for the month included $516.69 to the general fund and $59.45 to the light fund. Bills totaled $261.64, of which $80 was police salary and $113.90 was for street lights.

WARREN CENTER, Pa. (AP)—Alvin B. Colegrove, 36, will be arraigned today before a justice of the peace on charges of committing more than 50 burglaries since last fall.

They said Colegrove, discharged from Graterford prison last Oct. 11 after serving 10 years for two burglaries and larceny of a car, told them he had burglarized places all over northeastern Pennsylvania and around Owego, N.Y. He said he had broken into a house near Blakely Corners Tuesday and stole a car near Hazleton to come home.

SENATE VOTES TO SEND BILL TO COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate, breaking a deadlock lasting since March 9, voted today to take up for formal consideration the House-passed civil rights bill.

Southerners, who have used the motion to take up as the basis for lengthy speeches bitterly attacking the bill itself, finally let the vote come on the 17th day of the debate.

The motion, made by Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, passed overwhelmingly as expected.

The Senate met today at 9 a.m., three hours ahead of its usual time, and the roll call came without any further speech-making.

This first vote cleared the way for a motion by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., to send the bill to the Senate Judiciary Committee headed by Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., for 10 days of hearings and study.

Democratic leaders planned to try to kill this move with a tabling motion later today but expected the outcome to be close.

However, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., floor manager for the bill, predicted that the tabling motion would win and that the Senate could begin its debate on the bill itself Monday after a three-day Easter recess.

Dizziness, Loss Of Balance Associated With Nausea Delaying Glenn's Recovery

By RONNIE THOMPSON
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—

The brunt of a concussion suffered by former astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. Feb. 28 was absorbed by his left inner ear, his doctor says.

Dr. Earl W. Brannon said in an interview that the Marine lieutenant colonel is making a normal course of recovery from an injury of this type. He described it as labyrinthitis, an inflammation of the inner ear, generally caused by an injury or infection.

FELL IN BATHROOM

Glenn slipped as he was attempting to hang a mirror in the bathroom of his temporary Columbus, Ohio, apartment and slammed his head against the bathtub.

Brannon explained Glenn's injury this way:

The left side of his head, just above and slightly behind the left ear in the left temporal region, hit the bathtub.

As a result of the blow, there was swelling and bleeding under the skin and in the muscle over the bone. This was a superficial bruise about the size of a goose egg and has since healed.

DAMAGE INNER EAR

The shock wave from the blow, or what is called a concussion, was localized in the area of the temporal bone in the portion of the skull that houses the ear.

Primarily, the damage was in the inner ear, or labyrinth portion. The inner ear has two functions—hearing and equilibrium.

In Glenn's case, the brunt of the concussion was taken up in the equilibrium center that controls a person's balance and coordination.

He suffered no loss of hearing. When Glenn sits too long, turns his head too abruptly, or walks for any distance he experiences dizziness and a loss of balance associated with nausea.

Treatment has included plenty of rest and primarily administration of medicines to relieve dizziness and reduce swelling, Brannon said. "There has been no surgery."

HEARINGS END, UPROAR FADES IN BAKER CASE

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Barring an unexpected upheaval, the Senate's investigation of Bobby Baker's dealings appears to have faded away.

Republicans still talked about trying to have a couple of more witnesses called before the Senate Rules Committee, but they voiced only faint hope. Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., said no more hearings were scheduled in the effort to find whether conflict of interest had been involved.

QUIET END

What looked like the end came quietly Wednesday night without any of the partisan uproar that in recent days had brought Republican cries of "whitewash" and Jordan's countercharge of "back-alley politics."

Testimony at Wednesday's hearing produced these highlights about the dealings of Baker, who resigned under fire last Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority:

Edward Hugler, a government auditor on loan to the committee, said examination of Baker's federal income tax returns for 1959 through 1962 had shown only "a few discrepancies."

He and another witness, Milton L. Hautt, an accountant who helped Baker prepare his 1961 and 1962 returns, said they could not explain $40,000 of income reported by Baker in 1962.

Hautt also testified that his name had been forged to the 1961 return filed by Baker but that the tax due was correctly reported. He said no attempt had been made to imitate his signature but he didn't know what to call it except forgery.

The committee's investigation centers on how Baker, while on the Senate pay roll at $19,600 a year, acquired a fortune he estimated in excess of $2 million.

After Wednesday's testimony, special counsel L. P. McLendon was asked by newsmen if the hearings were over. "I hope so," he replied, adding work already had been started on a report to the Senate.

PLAN TOURNEY TO FIND Foe FOR CASSIUS

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York State Athletic Commission's plan to set up an elimination tournament for heavyweight challengers already has stirred up some action to pit top contenders against each other. The commission wants to line up an opponent for heavyweight champion Cassius Clay. Even before Gen. Melvin Krawitz, chairman of the commission, could formalize his scheme at a meeting today, a bid was made by Madison Square Garden for a fight between former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson and Cleveland Williams.

Harry Markson, director of boxing for the Garden, wired Patterson an offer of 35 per cent of the gate and television receipts to meet Williams, a hard hitter from Houston, the week of June 22.

PATTERSON VS. MACHEN

Patterson couldn't be reached for his reaction, but in the past he has ducked the belt with a few exceptions.

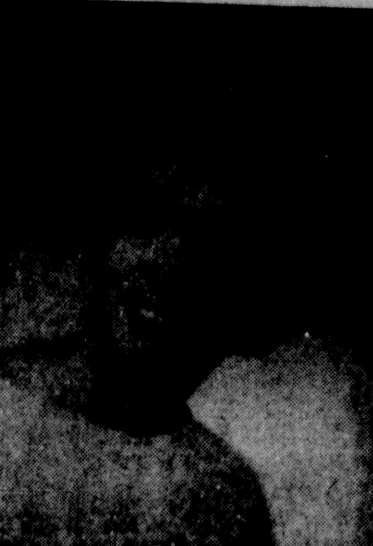

Markson said Williams' manager, Hugh Benbow, already has accepted the match. Williams, ranked sixth one notch higher than Patterson, would get a smaller percentage.

There's also a strong possibility that Patterson will take on Eddie Machen, the former top contender now engaged in a comeback, in Goteborg, Sweden this June.

OTHERS GET BIDS

In addition to Machen, ranked fourth by the World Boxing Association and fifth by Ring, Patterson and Williams, the commission invited Doug Jones of New York to participate in the four-man tournament. Jones, ranked first by the WBA and second by Ring, lost a disputed 10-round decision to Clay at the Garden a year ago. All were asked to attend the meeting to day.

MISS DEHAVEN WINS MEDAL

KAREN DeHAVEN

Karen DeHaven, a senior in the Bermudian Springs High School, won a silver medal on Monday night for giving "The Story of the True Vine," the entire passage of John 15. This silver speech contest was sponsored by the Latimore local of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and was presented in its regular meeting held in the home of Mrs. Chester Worley. There were 24 in attendance.

Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl DeHaven, York Springs R. 2. She is active in school and church. She has participated in the following activities at high school: Football and basketball cheerleader, school chorus, Tri-Hi and Future Teachers of America, and played a part in both the junior and senior plays. She is active in Sunday School and the Young Peoples' Missionary Band of the Heidlersburg UB Church. She will attend the York Junior College next year.

Other participants in the contest were Ann Sowers, Connie DeHaven, Ronald Zook and Alice Hikes. The judges were Mrs. Stella Stallsmith, Mrs. Loretta Hayes and Mrs. Dora Smith.

Besides sponsoring the contest, the Latimore Local decided to send 10 subscriptions of the "Union Signal," their national magazine, to ministers and interested persons in their area, to purchase three books for school libraries, and to pay for four state report books, one for each of their officers, which contain a survey of the work accomplished by the state WCTU in the last year.

Gets Citizenship On 100th Birthday

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—A Britisher seated in a wheelchair became an American citizen Wednesday on his 100th birthday.

The new citizen, Nicholas Latimer Charles Martindale, took the oath before U.S. District Court Judge J. Robert Elliott.

Martindale came to Columbus in 1953 to live with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Haig. Haig is his foster son.

Martindale said he decided to become a citizen "to recognize the friendship, comradeship and kindness of the people of Georgia and my son and daughter."

He was born in 1864 near London and has lived in the United States for 75 years.

Ernie Terrell of Chicago, ranked second by the WBA and third by Ring, wasn't invited to the tournament or meeting. His manager, Julie Isaacson, said Ernie wants to fight and wants to know why he wasn't asked. He said he'll attend and ask the general.

Yankee Wants To Fly Across Russia

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP)—An ex-Marine fighter pilot has asked Soviet Premier Khrushchev for permission to fly his private airplane over part of the Soviet Union.

Tom Danaher, 39, a Wichita Falls automobile dealer, will go to Kyushu, Japan, in mid-April to take possession of a twin-engine amphibian plane. He estimates he can save a week's flying time if he flies home via Siberia and Alaska rather than over India, Europe and Newfoundland.

Danaher cannot fly directly across the Pacific because the plane has a range of only 600 miles.

ONE CREWMAN DEAD AS BLAST SPLITS TANKER

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP)—An explosion ripped through the American tanker San Jacinto off the Virginia coast early today, leaving one crew member dead and the two sections of the ship wallowing helplessly in 5- to 10-foot seas.

The master of the stricken vessel, Harold J. Titus, 40, of Pine City, N.Y., who remained aboard the bobbing stern with 36 of the 39 crewmen, radioed that all survivors were well. SAVE PAPERS

Two of the San Jacinto's crew members went aboard the tanker Mobile Pegasus to carry their ship's papers to safety and it was one of these—a steward, M. Dotilla—who died apparently of natural causes.

The others remained aboard the bobbing stern section and rejected plans to be lifted off by helicopter.

A light rain was falling over the area, and the skies were overcast.

The Coast Guard said the Mobile Pegasus had been released from the scene and had started on its way.

The explosion occurred at 12:45 a.m. about 40 miles off the coast. The San Jacinto was in ballast, enroute from Portland, Maine, to Houston, Tex., and expelling fumes from its tanks.

VESSEL BREAKS

The vessel broke in two between the pilot house and engine room, and parted several hours later.

The San Jacinto is owned by the Trinidad Corp. of New York. The builder of the 544-foot San Jacinto was Sun Shipbuilding Co. of Chester, Pa. The Coast Guard said a new bow section was added by Todd Shipbuilding Co. of Galveston, Tex., in 1953.

Two tugboats left Norfolk to take the two sections in tow.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the most powerful Democrats in Congress has suggested, in effect, that President Johnson stop playing to the gallery in his handling of foreign affairs.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in an 8,000-word speech Wednesday criticized the Johnson administration for yielding to the "malady of chronic and excessive caution."

He said "an effective foreign policy is one which concerns itself more with innovation abroad than with conciliation at home. It is sometimes necessary for leaders to do unpleasant and unpopular things."

QUICK RESPONSE
Fulbright ranged the world—Communism, Russia, Red China, Viet Nam, Cuba, Latin America, Panama—calling for this country and its leaders to abandon ancient myths, do some re-thinking and face realities.

But on some of the problems he mentioned Fulbright didn't seem to have any new ideas himself.

Nevertheless, all this got a quick and cynical response from Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, chairman of the platform committee at this summer's Republican convention.

CALLED TRAIL BALLOON
In a House speech answering Fulbright he called the senator's talk a trial balloon launched with the blessing, support and probably at the instigation of the Johnson administration.

He called it the "first gun in an administration drive to extricate itself as painlessly as possible from the morass of foreign policy blunders" of the past three years.

This writer asked Laird Wednesday night if he was implying that Johnson and Fulbright cooked up the speech between them. Laird said: "That's the implication."

CREATED HEAT
The Fulbright speech created such heat in the Senate that

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, the GALAXON plan. You must lose weight fast or your money back. One of the basic problems of losing weight is your inability to stick to a planned diet. The GALAXON plan contains a tablet and is easily swallowed. When you take GALAXON you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because GALAXON increases your appetite and decreases your desire for food thus making it easier and more comfortable for you to diet. Your weight must come down because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. Of course GALAXON can't do all the work for you alone. But if you really want to cut down on your eating, and lose weight, GALAXON can be a powerful helper. practically all work on the civil rights bill stopped.

Here are some of Fulbright's views:

Cuba—He said invasion is unthinkable, a blockade is out of the question since it might lead to war, and that even the present American trade boycott aimed at trying to topple Fidel Castro is a failure.

He suggested acceptance of the continued existence of Castro as a "distasteful nuisance," but he neglected to say how this country should, or could, do business with him, if that's what he had in mind.

FOR CONTINUED AID

South Viet Nam—He was for continuing aid. But he was a little out of date here. The Johnson administration said last week it would do that.

Red China—Fulbright said we are committed to "inflexible policies from which we hesitate to depart" on Red China and other areas of Asia. What would he do about Red China?

He wouldn't recognize it, or agree to let it in the United Nations, or enter normal relations with it until it gives up its designs on Formosa.

But Fulbright belted the Johnson administration's handling of the Panama crisis and its hair-splitting: Its willingness to "discuss" a revision of the 1903 Panama Canal treaty but not to "negotiate" about it.

PRETTY RAW DEAL
The senator suggested Panama got a pretty raw deal when the treaty was signed 61 years ago and Johnson should be willing to "negotiate."

He said the President and his advisers have a responsibility in a situation like this to "exercise their own best judgment as to where the national interest lies" even though it may mean "unpopular decisions."

This country, Fulbright said, should re-examine its dealings with Russia to take advantage of the Russian-Red Chinese split and be prepared for revolutions in Latin America where "oligarchies" oppose peaceful social change.

REALLY MIXED UP
But things really got mixed up when Laird called on Johnson to state his position on Fulbright's talk.

The White House issued a statement: "It is a very interesting speech. But specifically on Cuba and Panama it does not represent the policy of this administration."

NEW SUSPENSE SHOW OPENS ON WEDNESDAY

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — CBS' "Suspense" got off to a start Wednesday night that justified the title of the new series even if the story was one of television's perennial favorites.

The story centered on a suspicious package left in a busy metropolitan hospital with a note saying, "The world ends at 10 o'clock."

Two perspiring calm men of the police bomb squad gingerly remove the triggering mechanism—seconds before the deadline, of course. Then the major portion of the half hour was devoted to the job of disposing of the quart bottle of volatile nitroglycerine—or only harmless honey—out of the hospital to a barge in the river.

The bomb disposal business is a good dramatic gimmick even when the viewer knows from experience that all will end well.

Sebastian Cabot will serve as host for this anthology series, a job assigned apparently more to kill some time than to introduce the plots. The series doesn't seem to be anything to get very excited about, but after all, it's only a stopgap to help CBS handle a trouble spot until fall. Two programs have been sickened and died there since September.

DAY ANNIVERSARY

"CBS Reports" has been working a year on its D-Day anniversary program, and with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower recalling the invasion day, will present the show on June 5, eve of the 20th anniversary date.

The program will be 90 minutes long, and show the former supreme Allied Commander revisiting World War II sites in England and France.

Recommended tonight: On NBC, "Knight's Gambit," 10-11 (Eastern Standard Time) — "Suspense Theater" drama set in Majorca, with Chester Morris and Roger Smith, late of "77 Sunset Strip."

RUSH AWARD TO GO TO READING

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Medical Society's Benjamin Rush awards go this year to a Reading business executive and a Philadelphia cancer group.

The society announced Wednesday it also will give an unprecedented special award to the Milton S. Hershey foundation in recognition of a $50 million bequest for a new medical center to be located in Derry Twp., near Harrisburg.

The individual Rush award will go to Richard J. Caron, vice president of Caron Spinning Co., while the organization award will go to the Cancer League of Philadelphia.

WORK WITH ALCOHOLICS
The awards are named for Dr. Benjamin Rush of Philadelphia, a signer of the Declaration of Independence and physician-general of Washington's revolutionary army. They will be presented at the society's officers' conference here next May.

Caron was honored for his work with alcoholics, including creation of a rehabilitation center, Chit-Chat Farm, at Wernersville, near Reading. The society, which identified Caron as a "recovered alcoholic," said he also was instrumental in creating Half-Way House for recovered alcoholics in downtown Reading.

The Cancer League, an organization of more than 400 volunteer members, was cited for its efforts since 1948 in contributing thousands of dollars of equipment to aid hospitals in caring for cancer patients.

How to add years
to your life

100

100 years ago the average American could expect to live about 40 years.

Today—about 70. Modern sanitation, diet, drugs and medical practice have added 30 years to our life span. And note that 70 is average. Many die sooner. Many live longer. You up your chances of being a "longer" if you eat properly and get proper medical care. This means periodic check-ups by your physician. As pharmacists we are pleased to help by supplying the drugs your doctor prescribes—drugs unknown a century ago. We're so conscious of the effectiveness of modern medicine that we're shooting for a life span of 100 years.

How about you?

Nine Men Convicted In London Train Robbery

AYLESBURY, England (AP)—A jury found nine men guilty today on charges of taking part in Britain's great train robbery—the theft of $7,345,000 from the Glasgow-London mail train last Aug. 8.

A 10th man was found guilty of conspiring to obstruct the course of justice.

Judge Edmund Davies said he would defer sentencing the convicted men until after the trial of eight other persons accused of complicity in the giant money snatch, the largest cash robbery in the annals of world crime.

The eight awaiting trial—including three women—were granted separate trials when the case was brought to court in January. Another defendant pleaded guilty and still another got a directed verdict of acquittal during the trial.

MILLIONS MISSING

The police have so far recovered only 258,000 pounds ($722,400) of the loot and are still looking for the gang's masterminds, who are believed to be in possession of the balance.

The haul was made in a commando-like raid on the London-bound mail train after it was stopped by a false red signal at a hamlet near Aylesbury.

Most of the money was in five-pound notes being transferred from banks in Scotland to banks in the British capital.

The trial began Jan. 20 and lasted nine weeks, an unusual length for a British criminal trial. Judge Davies took five days to deliver his summation.

DELIBERATE 3 DAYS

The jury's three-day deliberation was the longest such session in England since 1670, when a jury was kept locked up for two days without food and water but refused to convict William Penn of preaching to an unlawful assembly of Quakers.

The Aylesbury jury suffered no such privations. But Judge Davies, after a juror reported last week that he had been offered a bribe, decreed that their whereabouts while deliberating should be kept secret, they should have no access to radios, television sets, newspapers and phone calls, and their families should be put under police guard.

Defendants found guilty of conspiring to rob the train were:

Roger J. Cordrey, 42, a florist of East Molesey, Surrey;

William Boal, 50, engineer, of London; Charles F. Wilson, 31, and Thomas W. Wisbey, 33, both London bookies; James Hussey, 30, housepainter, London; Leonard D. Field, 31, merchant seaman, London; Douglas G. Goody, 34, barber, London; Brian A. Field, 29, clerk, Whitechurch Hill, Oxfordshire; and Roy J. James, 28, silversmith and auto racing driver, London.

John D. Wheeler, 41, a lawyer of Ashstead, Surrey, was found innocent on the robbery charge but guilty of conspiring to obstruct the course of justice.

People In The News

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz said in Cambridge, Mass., that the past year has brought more progress in recognizing Negroes' rights "than in the previous 100 years."

But, he told his audience at Harvard Law School, "every inch of it will be lost" if the nation does not provide more jobs for Negroes.

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Richard M. Nixon said in Karachi that Pakistan's President Mohammed Ayub Khan "remains a genuine friend and strong ally of the United States."

After a long talk and luncheon with Ayub, the former U.S. vice president said "any talk of Ayub's being taken in by the Chinese Communists or by neutralism is bunk."

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ralph M. Larue, 44-year-old Columbus, Ohio, railroad worker, was named in Washington as "locomotive fireman of 1963" for saving the life of a 2-year-old girl.

Last July 31 Larue saw little Shirley Ward of Greenville, Ohio, walking on the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad's main line. Knowing the 89-car freight could not be stopped in time, Larue ran to the front of the locomotive, leaped forward and swept the tot clear of the track.

Larue had his name added to a silver trophy and received $500 from the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

2ND MAN IS ARRESTED IN MURDER PROBE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A second man has been arrested and charged with homicide in the murder of a 67-year-old South Philadelphia grocer.

James M. DiPasquale, 24, surrendered to police yesterday on a Philadelphia street corner. The other man charged with the murder of Ludwig Branach is John P. Amato, 24, who was arrested last Sunday on a tip from his father-in-law, police Lt. Gerald Reidinger.

Mrs. Geraldine Amato, 23-year-old daughter of the policeman, said she doesn't believe her husband murdered Branach. She said she knew of her husband's record of sex offenses before she married him three years ago against her parents' wishes.

She said her only regret was that her father did not come to her first, before going to the police.

"To think that my father could do this... this is what hurts so badly," she said.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

SPACE: The House passed on Wednesday and sent to the Senate a $5.2-billion space authorization that includes funds for research on a new supersonic commercial jet and for a new electronics research center near Boston, Mass.

Efforts to strike the two controversial projects from the bill were defeated by lopsided votes. The measure authorizes $10 million for the center and $24.7 million for the jet.

SWITCH: Taylor G. Belcher is taking over as U.S. ambassador to Cyprus, replacing Fraser Wilkins who held the Nicotia post for 3½ years. Wilkins will become the new inspector general of the U.S. foreign service.

POVERTY: Sargent Shriver, head of the administration's antipoverty campaign, announced at a news conference Wednesday these unsalaried appointments:

—Dr. Vernon Roger Alden, 40, president of Ohio University, to develop plans for the proposed job corps.

—Jack T. Conway, 46, executive director of the AFL-CIO's Industrial Union Department, to be responsible for making guideline decisions in the community action program.

—Dr. Glenn A. Olds, 43, president of Springfield (Mass.) College, to plan the organization of Volunteers for America, a peace corps-styled group to be incorporated into the antipoverty drive.

FLIERS: A State Department spokesman said Wednesday the Soviet Union still has not said when two American fliers shot down March 10 over East Germany will be released, but there is no reason to believe the Soviets "will not honor their commitment."

KILLED IN CRASH

OLATHE, Kan. (AP)—An airman from Richards-Gebauer Air Force Base, Kansas City, was killed and another airman critically injured in a car-train collision one half-mile northeast of Olathe, early today.

An Air Force spokesman at the base identified the dead man as A-2C Clyde W. Cox, 21, of Williamsport, Pa. A-3C William F. Cook, 18, of Robertsdale, Ala., is in critical condition in St. Lukes Hospital in Kansas City, the spokesman said.

TESTIMONY IN REIS TRIAL IS CHANGED NOW

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Defense attorney Robert F. Simone accused a Commonwealth witness Wednesday of changing testimony given in the first trial of Lillian Reis.

The accusation arose over the question of whether Miss Reis denied implication in the burglary of the John B. Rich home here in August, 1959.

Simone also accused Asst. Dist. Atty. Calvin J. Friedberg of cross-examining his own witness, and Judge Charles W. Staudenmeier told Simone he was reading notes out of context.

TOO LONG AGO

The disturbance came late in the day when Mrs. Frances Downey, former matron of the Schuylkill County prison, was testifying to Miss Reis' conduct after statements of other defendants had been read to her in the warden's office on April 3, 1960.

She quoted Miss Reis as saying, "Oh, so that was what it was all about. Those crumbs."

Simone then read from the transcript of Mrs. Downey's testimony at the first trial, during which she said Miss Reis denied that she was involved in the burglary. Mrs. Downey said, however, that she didn't recall that testimony because it was so long ago.

NO ACTUAL DENIAL

Friedberg then took up reading the manuscript, when Mrs. Downey admitted that Miss Reis did not actually deny the statement, but she got the impression of denial from the words "those crumbs."

Simone then objected to Friedberg reading the transcript and to the follow up questions on the grounds that he was cross-examining his own witness. Judge Staudenmeier said Simone had taken the passage out of context.

Friedberg asked if Miss Reis denied implication in the burglary, and Mrs. Downey replied, "no."

In other events Wednesday, the court ordered Clyde (Bing) Miller, a defendant and the state's star witness in the case, to produce his income tax records from 1953 until 1959.

YUMA TRIO IS SENTENCED FOR MAN'S MURDER

PRESCOTT, Ariz. (AP)—Three Yuma youths have been sentenced to terms in Arizona state prison for the murder of a 25-year-old sailor originally from York, Pa.

Superior Court Judge Jack Ogg set the sentences Wednesday at 10 to 15 years for Richard Mellor and Roger Castleton both 18, and 15 to 25 years for Robert Hoffman, 20.

Eyer, on temporary duty at the Yuma Marine Air station, was beaten to death last November.

The judge said Hoffman received the heavier sentence because he was more deeply implicated in the robbery-murder. During the trial, Hoffman admitted hitting Eyer with a cotton baling strap.

Already serving a life sentence for the murder is Jerry Hilyer, 20, also of Yuma. The jury found him guilty of first degree murder after hearing testimony that he struck the blows which caused Eyer's death.

Negro Transfers To Kentucky U.

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Steve Matthews, 5-foot-11, 200-pound Negro fullback from Detroit, is making a bid to become the first of his race to compete in athletics at Kentucky and in the Southeastern Conference.

The youth, who transferred to Kentucky last semester, failed in attempts to make the freshman and varsity squads at the University of Detroit.

"He's a student and meets all the requirements to come out for the team," said Charlie Bradshaw, head coach of Kentucky who greeted 69 other football prospects at the first day of spring practice Wednesday.

Other coaches in the SEC, which has been segregated since its founding 30 years ago, expressed little surprise at Matthews' effort.

M'ARTHUR IS WAGING FIGHT FOR HIS LIFE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur continues to draw on reservoirs of strength in his recovery from the life-endangering crisis that demanded major surgery Monday.

Brig. Gen. Henry S. Murphey, commandant of Walter Reed Army Medical Center, described the general's condition Wednesday night as critical. But he said the general was doing satisfactorily, and was improved over his extremely critical condition of Monday.

"He is still seriously ill," Gen. Murphey said in response to newsmen's written questions.

MESSAGES POUR IN

The 84-year-old general was operated on March 6 for removal of his gallbladder. Then 17 days later he suffered severe internal bleeding and required emergency six-hour surgery from which he is now recovering. The second crisis was not related to the earlier surgery, doctors said.

Personal messages continue to pour in. President Johnson has telephoned several times to express concern.

Personal messages have also been received from the emperor of Japan; the prime minister and foreign minister of Japan; the presidents of the Philippines, Nationalist China and South Korea; former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, other notable persons and thousands of citizens.

The general took small quantities of liquid food — broth and milk — at frequent intervals Wednesday. He speaks — a few words at a time — with his family and the medical staff.

CHILD KILLED

LYKENS, Pa. (AP)—James Boyer, 2, was killed Wednesday when he ran into a coal truck near his home in this Dauphin County borough. Police said the truck was driven by Allan Wolfe of Pine Grove.

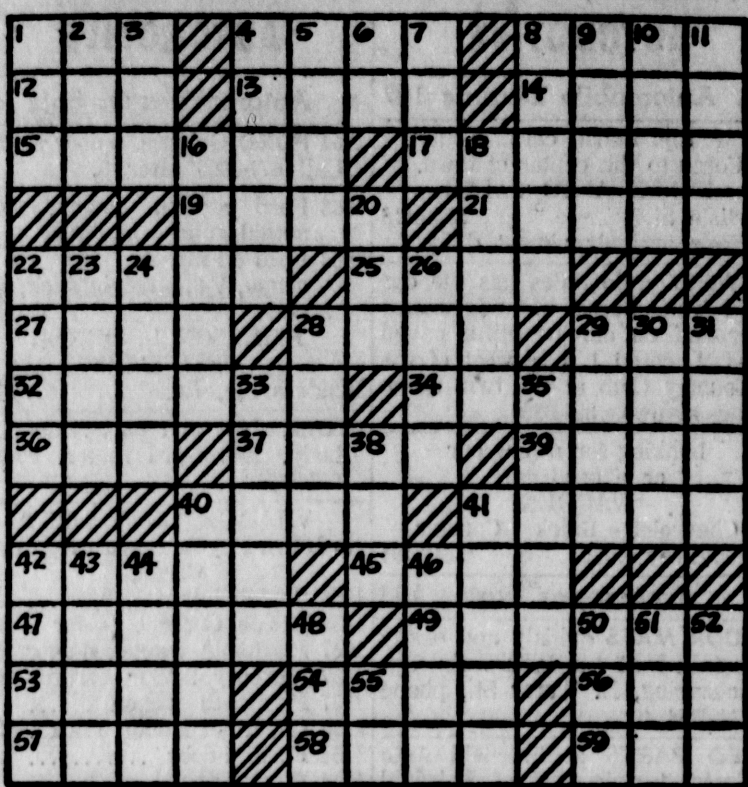

ON SCRANTON TEAM

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., announced Wednesday the appointment of James E. Staudinger, Montgomery County Republican chairman, as executive committee chairman of the Scranton-Presidential Club of Pennsylvania.

U THANT NAMES FINN TO JUDGE CYPRUS CRISIS

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

GENEVA (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant has appointed former Premier Sakari S. Tuomioja of Finland as mediator in the Cyprus dispute.

Tuomioja, 52, politician and diplomat, said he would take up his work in the strife-torn east Mediterranean island by the middle of next week.

His appointment was approved Tuesday by Greece, Turkey, Britain and the island's two feuding communities.

Tuomioja, who has been Finland's ambassador to Sweden, said he would fly to New York Sunday for further consultations with Thant.

SEEKS PEACE

Tuomioja's mission is to try to bring a permanent peace between the feuding Greek and Turkish Cypriot communities.

He said the Finnish government had given him a six months leave of absence, but "nobody can tell how long it will take." The mediator's mandate from the Security Council is for only three months, but it undoubtedly would be extended if factions and nations involved desired it.

With Tuomioja's appointment, the United Nations was almost ready to begin its two-fold task of enforcing a peace between the Greek and Turkish Cypriots and trying to mediate their bloody communal dispute.

REPORTS PROGRESS

Lt. Gen. Prem Singh Gyani, Indian commander of the U.N. peacekeeping force for the island, arrived back in Cyprus and said the international army may be operational by the end of the week. He had been in Geneva for two days of talks with Thant.

The Security Council's March 4 resolution authorized appointment of a neutral negotiator to seek a solution of the three-month-old conflict over the Cyprus constitution. The council also approved sending a peace force to Cyprus for three months while the mediator seeks a permanent accord.

RECEIVES APPROVAL

Thant needed the assent of the Greek and Turkish Cypriots as well as Britain, Greece and Turkey, guarantors of Cyprus' 1960 independence from Britain, before naming Tuomioja mediator.

Cyprus Foreign Minister Spyros Kyprianou, a Greek Cypriot, said at U.N. headquarters Tuesday.

Prothonotary Is Admitted To Bar

PITTSBURGH (AP)—In an unprecedented action, prothonotary Patrick N. Bolsinger was admitted to the bar of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court Wednesday.

Bolsinger, 60, became the first person admitted to the court without having taken a bar examination.

day night he had notified the U.N. secretariat that President Makarios of Cyprus, who heads the island's Greek majority, had approved Tuomioja.

Chief Justice John C. Bell Jr. read a glowing account of Bolsinger's service and loyalty to the court which he has served for 35 years.

Bolsinger, a resident of Ebensburg, Cambria County, has served as a crier, secretary to justices, librarian and clerk of the court. He was named prothonotary of the Western District in 1954 and prothonotary of both Eastern and Western Districts last year.

Justice Herbert B. Cohen dissented in the action, saying Bolsinger should not be admitted because he took no bar examination. Justice Michael A. Mus-

CHARGES ARMY IS BIASED IN BASE HOUSING

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Pentagon-ordered survey showed there was housing discrimination against Negro servicemen near 90 per cent of the military bases in the United States, it was disclosed Wednesday.

Alfred B. Fitt, deputy assistant secretary of defense for civil rights, told The Associated Press that housing "clearly is the most unyielding" of the various forms of racial bias facing Negroes in uniform.

APPROVES 31 BASES
This discrimination, Fitt said, exists in Northern base areas as well as in the South. Only 31 of 305 bases studied were given a clean bill on this count. Fitts declined to name the 31.

The Pentagon's civil rights chief indicated that by the process of "negotiation and conciliation" base commanders had made progress in easing discrimination against Negro servicemen and their families in off-base schooling, transportation and use of such public facilities as parks and libraries.

"I'm sure that since last fall commanders have secured changes on behalf of their men," Fitt said.

ORDERED REPORT
Among other things, base commanders had been told to report whether the "treatment accorded Negro military personnel by the local police (is) in any way different from that accorded white military personnel."

The findings, Fitt said: "No case of significant difference in law enforcement between white and Negro servicemen."

The survey was ordered last September. Its basic objective, the Pentagon said at the time, was to obtain "necessary information for the formulation of future policy."

A total of 62 base areas turned up with such good records in the first reports made last November that the commanders were relieved of the responsibility of reporting again on May 1.

United States Delivers Warning To The World's Poor Nations On Future

By LAWRENCE MALKIN
GENEVA (AP) — The United States delivered a stern lecture Wednesday to the world's poor nations, urging them to forget traditional fears of investment by foreign capitalists and get to work reorganizing their backward economies.

"Economic development is an intricate and difficult process," Undersecretary of State George Ball warned the U.N. Trade and Development Conference. "It has proved difficult for the industrial countries who have gone through it in the past, and it will be so for the newer countries going through it now."

The rich nations, he added, can help with technical advice and close cooperation through such established forums as the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade—GATT.

SET THE TONE

Ball said he would like these ideas to set the tone of the 122-nation conference, which has already heard spokesmen of the underdeveloped countries condemn GATT as inadequate to their need for a larger share of world trade.

Ball's speech, virtually a do-it-yourself improvement program for the have-not nations when contrasted with what they want, was not likely to go down well with the majority of the delegates from the underdeveloped nations.

Ball said the rich countries for their part must keep full employment so the world economy does not break down.

PRIVATE CAPITAL

He said the poor nations should welcome private capital to develop industries, with foreign aid providing another source for more basic, long-range projects.

"Many developing countries are, I fear, still influenced by the clichés of the past," he said.

Ball said the poor nations should form their own regional economic groups to broaden their markets and pool their developing industries.

He urged the developing countries to set their own houses in order — to reorganize their markets and re-examine "the full range of internal policies that are critical to the mobilization and use of capital."

The Allenberry Players, Boiling Springs, launch their 16th season on April 3 with Director Richard North Gage's production of the Broadway comedy success "The Irregular Verb To Love."

The feature attraction at the 17th annual Zumbo Shrine Circus, April 6-11 at the Farm Show arena, Harrisburg, will be James Drury, star of NBC-TV's "The Virginian." He will appear at all performances, including the five matinees (except Monday) and six evening shows.

of several roles. She plays the rebellious daughter of an English couple, who isn't sure she wants to go through with her impending marriage.

Peter Retray, another returnee, is Miss Harrigan's brother, another rebel of sorts, who is also having romantic troubles.

Bettie Endrizzi, a veteran of 14 seasons at Allenberry steps into her 15th characterization, a part which Claudette Colbert, Hollywood star, created on Broadway.

The Cyril Ritchard part, that of the father, is in the capable hands of Don Draper, who attracted a considerable fan following in 13 roles last year.

Newcomer Allen Stokes, top magazine and TV model and a performer at the Litchfield, Conn. Summer Theater for the past three seasons, provides the romantic interest for the daughter, and Helen Chiaramonte, another new face, is cast as the son's girl friend.

During the first 16 years of this annual Hamid-Morton International three-ring circus Zumbo Shrine has spent more than $250,000 for crippled children's hospitals and in assisting crippled children and orphans in the nine-county area of the Shrine which includes Adams County.

Each year 6,000 crippled children and orphans are guests of the Shrine at its annual circus matinee in Harrisburg.

During the first few weeks after Drury began starring in the title role of NBC-TV's "The Virginian," he worked seven days a week: Five days at the studio, and weekends repairing automobiles he had contracted to fix before he was selected for the role.

To support himself between guest roles before "The Virginian," Drury, a mechanic, repaired autos for a San Fernando Valley used car lot. Business had been so good that, when he was picked for the series' lead, he still had several cars awaiting attention.

"I don't particularly like working on cars," he explains, "but it was better than starving or living on unemployment insurance when things were rough."

Drury likes to act, and he doesn't mind saying so. And he's equally honest in his joy at being cast as "The Virginian" in television's first 90-minute filmed color series on Wednesdays. "I've been waiting for a part like this for 20 years," he says.

Minister Of Highways Says Low Speed Limits Tend To Create Mishaps

Firm Ordered To Honor Union

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board Wednesday directed Penn Central Containers, Inc., Williamsport, Pa., to recognize the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers, AFL-CIO, as representatives of its production and maintenance employees. The firm was ordered to bargain with the union on wages and other conditions of employment.

The bargain unit includes truck drivers and leadmen, but excludes office workers.

The board held the union was chosen representative at a proper election, and said the firm is unlawfully refusing to bargain.

By ROBERT HEARD
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The minister of highways for British Columbia says safety campaigns "are not only a bore, they are a menace."

And nothing gets his dander up more than slow drivers. Philip Gagliardi, sometimes referred to as the "hot rod minister," says, "The fast driver is the safe driver because he is more alert."

Gagliardi and his six-man entourage are in this country to drum up tourist business by speaking of the glories of British Columbia.

CREATE ACCIDENTS

"Lowering speed limits tends to create accidents, raising the limit prevents them," he said. "Safety campaigns scare the timid and emotionalize danger. Newspapers dramatize the big holiday weekends and death tolls when probably there are fewer accidents per miles driven than any other time."

"Policemen drag out their radar on the big weekends and catch a few hundred drivers going five or 10 miles over the limit and pack up and leave. 'It burns me up to get a ticket like that.'"

The minister of highways got a speeding ticket? "Yes, I've got them before," he said.

More than one? "Six, I think." He's tried to talk his way out of a ticket, but "when they find out who I am, they are more determined than ever to give me one."

CASH LOCKED UP

MONTICELLO, Ky. (AP) — It was time for the Monticello-Danville High School basketball game to begin but no one could find the official scorer, Johnny Cash.

They found him nearly an hour later — accidentally locked in the coach's office.

Khrushchev May Go Down In History As Man Who Ruined Soviet Farming; A Big Fiasco

By RICHARD F. NEWCOMB
AP Newsfeatures Writer

In one of the great ironies of our time, Khrushchev the farm boy may go down in history as the man who ruined Soviet farming.

It wasn't only the great fiasco of the Virgin Lands. It was that in insisting on the Virgin Lands scheme, Khrushchev severely distorted farm production throughout the rest of the Soviet Union. Now his ignominy has been completed with the forced admission that Communist farmers must turn to capitalism. Not only to feed the Communists this year and more years to come, but capitalist methods must be copied if the Communist world is ever to feed itself.

DEBACLE IN 1953

The debacle began in 1953. Against the advice of experts, Khrushchev ordered a vast area of Siberia and Kazakhstan — nearly 100 million acres — turned to the plow. Khrushchev saw waving grain stretching over hundreds of miles of steppes, providing enough to feed the Soviet millions and make the USSR a powerful world trader.

By 1956, production had soared to 23.8 million tons of grain. Then it began to fall. By 1958 it was down to 15 million tons, by 1962 it was only eight million. Then came a terrible winter and the great drought of 1963. Last month, Agriculture Minister Ivan Volochenko admitted what the world had long suspected. Huge areas of the Virgin Lands are turning into a dust bowl.

EROSION DAMAGE

"Wind and water erosion is inflicting tremendous damage on agriculture," he told 6,000 farm leaders summoned to Moscow for the latest crisis meeting. More than 10 million acres are already affected in Siberia and Kazakhstan, and nearly 20 million acres will have to be "shallow-plowed" this year, to keep them from blowing away. In the last four years Khrushchev has fired four farm czars in Kazakhstan, but even that couldn't save the Virgin Lands scheme. Last month it was officially buried.

But that is only part of the story. While Khrushchev concentrated on the Virgin Lands, more than eight million acres of land in the Ukraine was taken out of grain. This was land that produced four times as much grain per acre as the Virgin Lands ever did.

CAN'T RAISE VEGETABLES

Now this area cannot even raise vegetables, or if it does they never get to market. Last fall at Volgograd (once Stalin-grad), Khrushchev ridiculed local cabbages, said they were so small he could put them in his pocket. Not far away, citizens rioted. They could not buy tomatoes, eggplant or peppers in Odessa, though bumper crops were rotting in the fields outside the city.

In White Russia and the Baltic states, Khrushchev ordered the farmers to stop growing clover, alfalfa and timothy, and get busy on corn, peas, beans and sugar beets. An American expert, visiting the farmers around Leningrad, reported they had "all gone to pieces." Soviet farming was 100 years behind the United States, he said.

There was a cigarette shortage in Moscow last fall. Tobacco (imported) was lying in the ports while rail cars were transporting vegetables. But vegetables were rotting in the cars on the outskirts of Moscow, and 25,000 persons turned out on a holiday to rescue what they could.

The old custom of free bread in restaurants has been abolished, and it is now a crime to feed bread to animals. People were warned to save every possible kilogram of potatoes, vegetables and fruit.

ALSO NEED GOLD

The Soviet Union then entered a new business — exporting gold by the ton to pay for millions of tons of food. Something is wrong with the Soviet system of agriculture. Production is not growing fast enough to keep up with the population.

The breakdown is complete, from the fields all the way back to the factories. The peasants shirk the state farms, because they make out better working their small private plots. Khrushchev alternately woos them and threatens them, promising a better life for more work, or punishment for less. In the last five years, production has steadily fallen.

MACHINERY IDLE

As the grain rots in the field, the machinery to save it stands idle. It is either broken or there is no one to drive it. The factories made new machines instead of spare parts. But in Kazakhstan last fall they stopped the trains and begged passengers to get out and help with the harvest. Recruiting parties went as far as the Crimea, a thousand miles away, looking for workers. Pravda said it was necessary to send in 100,000 machine operators. On one state farm, only 17 operators could be found for 77 combines. The rains came, and the grain rotted. Even grain already cut lay on the ground and spoiled; no trucks to move it. It was disaster, and the weather was only part of it.

WASTE FERTILIZER

Khrushchev's latest panacea is fertilizer and pesticides. He proposes to spend $50 billion on this in the next seven years. The peasants still waste what little fertilizer they have.

The future looks grim. Plowing last fall for this spring's wheat was far behind schedule, and it was another bad winter for the young wheat in the ground.

Canada looks forward to feeding the Communist world for years to come. Mitchell Sharp, the trade minister, says the Communist bloc will be "permanent importers" of grain on a substantial scale.

SOFTEN SPRING WITH COLLARS AND CUFFS

Collars and cuffs make a ladylike comeback for spring. Fashioned of cotton, crepe, eyelet, lace, organdy and other sheer fabrics, spring's detachable collars and cuffs add fresh touches of femininity to any outfit.

Refreshing in white to lighten and brighten navy, and play up the new pin stripes, collars and cuffs also come in a colorful variety of prints and stripes.

Many collars softly bow-tie for a romantic ingenue look. Others are pleated, ruffled, capped or "poet's collars." Cuffs are often deep and flared.

A dessert your youngsters will enjoy: Sweetened applesauce served with a topping of fried bread. To prepare the bread, remove the crusts from the slices and cut into finger lengths; fry until golden-brown in butter and then sprinkle with confectioners sugar.

WILL EXPLAIN IDEA TO MAYOR

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Prothonotary David B. Roberts of Allegheny County said Wednesday he would be glad to meet with Mayor James Tate of Philadelphia and explain his stand on certain issues.

Roberts is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate at the April 28 primary.

Tate hasn't announced whom he will support, and has asked Roberts and the other candidates — Genevieve Blatt and Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the state Supreme Court — to state their position on certain issues — particularly those involving Philadelphia.

TAKES EXCEPTION

In a letter to Tate, Roberts said he favors most of the points the Philadelphia mayor covers, however he added

"But I cannot help but note the complete absence of one great issue that — to my mind — should have prior consideration on any list, however, incomplete.

"I mean the civil rights issue which certainly is paramount to the people of Philadelphia and to all others in our great urban centers. I personally favor adoption of the federal legislation adopted by the House and now awaiting action by the U. S. Senate. I hope the U. S. Senate will have the benefit of your positive view on that subject."

Tate had no immediate comment on Roberts' letter.

The mayor had asked the three Democratic candidates to answer his queries not later than next Monday.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky. (AP) — One Elizabethtown kindergarten teacher was using an oversized clock to show her students how to tell time.

"These are the hours," she said, "and these are the minutes. And these are the seconds. Any questions?"

One little girl shot up her hand. "Where are the jiffies?"

CITES DANGER TO FREE WORLD IN BUDGET CUT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said Wednesday free world strength around the edge of the Communist bloc will quickly melt away unless the military assistance program gets at least a billion dollars a year.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, sounded an even stiffer warning. He said the requested billion dollars for the coming fiscal year can only be regarded as a holding operation of borderline adequacy.

PRESENTS VIEWS

Both men gave their views in statements prepared for the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

"I would be less than candid with the committee," Taylor said, "to leave you with the impression that I believe that we can get along with a billion-dollar program over the mid-term without a serious loss of military effectiveness in many countries which it is in our interest to support."

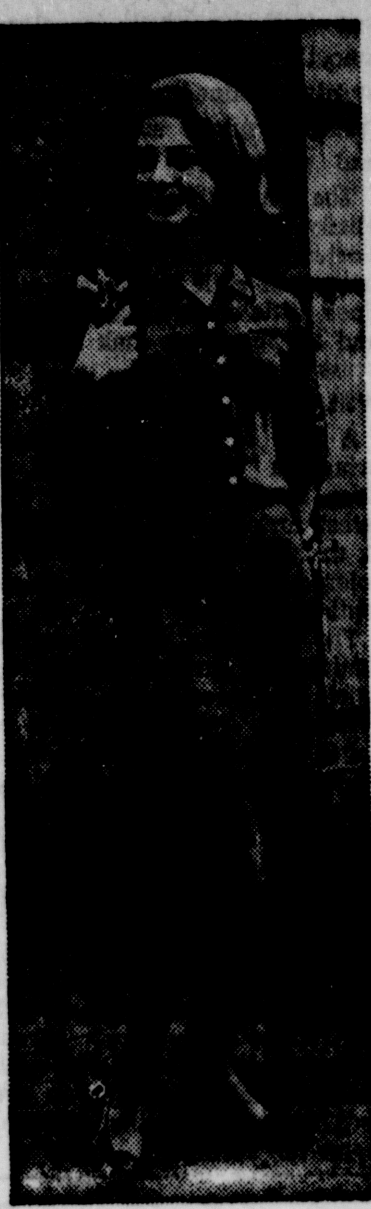

McNamara told the committee, "We are presenting a request of only a billion dollars for the fiscal year 1965 solely because the Congress has made it crystal clear to the executive branch that it is unwilling to appropriate a larger amount."

The requested military assistance fund is part of a $3.4-billion foreign aid budget asked by the administration.

McNamara got an advance buildup Tuesday from Aid Director David E. Bell, who said "there is no doubt whatever that without our military and economic assistance South Viet Nam would have fallen under Communist domination long ago."

Bell was asked Tuesday what would happen if Congress closed down the foreign aid program entirely, as some critics say they want.

"It would be disastrous," he

FITTING POST

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Frank Foehr, new superintendent of San Francisco's parks, should feel right at home in his job. He was born in a city park. The event took place when his parents were housed in an Army tent in Hamilton Square Park, refugees from the 1906 earthquake and fire.

ATLANTA (AP)—In 1936 Mrs. Rutherford Ellis wrote and directed a marionette show for the Atlanta Junior League, which exchanged children in hospitals and foster homes for many months. Now, almost three decades later, Mrs. John Langford, daughter of Mrs. Ellis, is directing the reappearance of the show. Titled "The Under - Sea Prince," it is the Junior League's 1964 Marionette Theater presentation.

SEIXAS WILL CAPTAIN TEAM

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Vic Seixas, seven-time member of the U.S. Davis Cup tennis team, said Wednesday he has accepted the nonplaying captaincy of the team.

Seixas said he struggled for a week over whether to take the post, offered by James B. Dicksey, president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association.

A securities salesman here, Seixas is a former Wimbledon and U.S. champion and was playing captain of the cup team in 1952. He has turned down the nonplaying captaincy previously three or four times because he could not afford to take time off from work.

He said the fact that the cup was in the U.S. for the first time since 1958, and will be defended here, helped him in his decision. The challenge round is scheduled for Cleveland Sept. 25-27.

Seixas succeeds Robert Kellner, Los Angeles Attorney, whose 1963 team turned back Australia in the challenge round last December, 3-2 in Australia. Seixas is first former cup player to captain the team since Billy Talbert gave up the job in 1957.

Seixas is expected to have an easier job than his immediate predecessors, who led the team during Australia's stranglehold on the coveted cup. Since 1951, the Aussies have yielded only in 1954, 1958 and last year.

No nation appears to have a combination equal to America's Chuck McKinley and Dennis Ralston. The Aussies have been hurt by internal dissension resulting in suspension of some of their top players, including top-ranked Roy Emerson.

LETTERS FAIL TO AID SOLONS IN CIVIL RIGHTS

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Citizens who write their senators or congressmen could wonder today just how much influence they are exerting on the passage of legislation.
Based on the reports on their civil rights mail by two Republican senators from states which include the nation's two largest cities, the answer seemed to be probably not much, because they may be offsetting each other.
Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., told the Senate Tuesday that for the first time in two weeks his New York State mail reflected a majority of expressions in favor of the House-passed civil rights bill now before the Senate.
Sen. Dirksen, who is proposing changes in the bill, said he is getting 1,000 letters a day. He said they are running 9-1 against the measure in its present form.

CONTRADICTS OTHER MAIL
Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois reported at a news conference, however, that his mail is running 9 to 1 against the bill.
Keating has intensified his vocal support of the measure during the last two weeks, when he said he was astounded to find that those who wrote him were about equally opposed to and in favor of the House bill.
With a sigh of satisfaction, however, he announced a "breakthrough" had been achieved in the previous day's mail. Of 1,179 letters from New York, Keating said that 840 favored the bill and 239 were against it.
GETS 1,000 DAILY
Dirksen, who is proposing changes in the bill, said he is getting 1,000 letters a day. He said they are running 9-1 against the measure in its present form.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — "I'm going to postpone fat and death and boredom as long as possible," said Gore Vidal, who has a mind that explodes with ideas like a pan full of popcorn.
"Most people are subjective narcissists. They don't see themselves falling apart. I'm an objective narcissist. I can see what happens to myself."
Vidal is the grandson of the late blind Sen. Thomas P. Gore. Literature is his profession, but politics and social criticism are his hobbies.
If he isn't America's angriest young man, he certainly is one of its most controversial — by choice.
"In Europe I'm rarely an-

Asked what he thought such a preponderance of opposition meant, he replied, "I just don't know."
He did volunteer at another point that he thinks people are getting worked up because they are finding out how the legislation might affect them.

"gry," he said. "Here I'm mad all the time. There's always something happening to keep me flowing with adrenalin."
Vidal, who never bothered going to college, started writing at 14. Now 38, tall and darkly handsome, he has turned out some nine novels, three Broadway plays, eight screen scripts, 30 television plays, a book of essays, a collection of short stories and innumerable critical articles.
He also found time in 1960 to run as a Democrat for Congress — and lose — from President Franklin D. Roosevelt's old mid-Hudson River district, a Republican haunt.
TO WRITE NOVELS
Vidal said he hopes to settle down now to writing novels and criticizing his fellow man, although he is toying with the thought of running for office again — perhaps on the New York Democratic statewide ticket.
A quirky man, he remarked of himself:
"I have a horror of putting on weight. I'm 6 feet, but if I get much over 160 pounds I hole up in a hotel room and starve myself."
"I'm a physical coward, very nervous about death, have a terror of airplanes. But I try to compensate for my physical cowardice by moral bravery.

"I am obsessed by the idea of justice, but I have no absolute idea what it is. It's easier to define it by what it is not. I keep wrestling with illusion and reality."
"People in this country, including politicians and businessmen, are completely unrealistic."

GIRLS' SHOES ARE COLORFUL, LIGHT, SMART

The new crop of shoe styles for little girls sports more lightweight textures, brighter colors and smarter styling than ever.
Joining the standard blacks, browns and whites are poster-bright shades and pretty pastels in a host of lively leather textures. The friskiest feet of the spring school and social season will be shod in glossy smooth and patent leathers, sturdy grained and brushed leathers, sporty waxed leather, and silky suede leather.
The continuing trend to simplicity in adult footwear is reflected in children's shoes. Most important style points are trim lines, little or no ornamentation, and an opened-up look in girls' dress shoes.
WELCOME CHANGE
A pair of new saddle shoes brings a welcome change of pace in the school year. The latest look in this classic style is dazzling white leather with colored patent leather or suede leather saddles.
The everyday leather oxford doubles its surface interest by using two tones or two textures of leather. A second leather or color — such as smooth with brushed leather, or mottled red with chino — is introduced as applique, overlay or underlay.
Party-time, Sunday visits and circus outings call for charming patent leather or polished smooth leather shell pumps and sling sandals in a flower garden of colors — yellow tulip, raspberry, sprout green. Straps — some with nail-heads or cut-out designs — are seen on many of the prettiest styles for spring.

Cook In "Creepy Kitchen" Forced To Hang Up Apron

By MALCOLM STEPHENSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The cook will have to hang up his apron at the Four Winds, which advertises a "creepy kitchen, mangy menu, despicable doorman, horrible host, wretched waitress, awful owner and malicious manager."

Gone forever, perhaps, is "another world not unlike the Arabian Nights" — the description emblazoned on a sign over the entrance of the Club Bizarre.

The boss at the Feenjon Restaurant will have to lay aside that eagle feather he uses to strum on an oud — the Near Eastern instrument that sounds like a guitar and looks like a watermelon cut in half.

HONKY TONKY

The dire news spread quickly Tuesday through the narrow, crooked streets of Greenwich Village.

The City Buildings Department ordered 11 coffeehouses and four open-front stores to discontinue operations on the ground they "contribute to a honky-tonk atmosphere" that violates a new zoning resolution.

The four-block area affected is bounded by streets whose names are familiar to every bohemian everywhere — Macdougall, West Third, Sullivan and Bleecker.

Buildings Commissioner Harold Birns said the area has been zoned for limited local retail use and the coffee houses, which provide entertainment, are not permitted in such districts.

Thus ended another battle in the city's war on coffee houses — many of which have brought complaints from neighbors.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

SHOW THRILLS 'FIRST LADY'

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson says she has never seen anything comparable to the thundering, fire-belching display of rocket engines designed to take men to the moon.

Holding her fingers to her ears and wearing a white helmet, she witnessed Tuesday the static test-firing of first-stage Saturn and F1 engines that each produce 1.5 million pounds of thrust.

The President's wife, on an inspection tour of the Marshall Space Flight Center, declared the size and complexity of the marvelous machines of space would be impressive to any viewer "and I am no exception."

The first lady combined her inspection tour of the space center, a luncheon reunion with Alabama relatives and got in quite a lick of politicking in a 13-hour trip to the South.

She said her husband's long-time interest in space prompted her visit and it brought nostalgic reminders of childhood summers spent here.

She praised Alabama and the South, for their part in making America "a space-faring nation that will lead the world in space research and development for peaceful purposes."

Since 1959, latex foam rubber cushioning has outsold all other filler materials combined, according to annual retail sales surveys.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
BREATH OF SPRING. Next time you are outdoors, make a point of taking deep breaths. Most of us breathe in a far too shallow fashion, and we pay for the habit in ways that we can ill afford.

Unless a person breathes deeply and rhythmically, as nature intended, there is a cut in energy and an increase in tension. Cheeks lose their blush and eyes, their glow. The voice sounds squeaky or flat.

In some instances, overweight is the cause of faulty breathing. Heavy people tend to breathe off the top of their lungs in short gasps. And that is one reason why the exercise they need comes so hard to them — why they feel strained and breathless before time.

But, whatever your weight, if you wish for more stamina and sparkle, b-r-e-a-t-h-e. On these spring days you could scarcely find a more enjoyable pursuit than to take in your share of balmy, fragrant air.

To be sure, try this simple routine: Sit by an open window, tailor-fashion on the floor and pull up tall. Inhale deeply for a slow count of three. Exhale for six slow counts, directing your breath against the back of your throat. Repeat four times, working for perfect rhythm.

Performed daily, the routine corrects the shallow breathing habit. Performed when you feel tired and look fatigued, it gives you the quickest possible pickup.

USE TEAR GAS TO HALT MARCH ON MANSION

SEOUL (AP) — Troops used tear gas Wednesday to block thousands of students marching on President Chung Hee Park's effort-saving work plan, shortcuts in housekeeping and advice on how to give yourself a beauty treatment while engaged in your duties. For your copy, write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing 20 cents in coin, and a LARGE, STAMPED, SELF-ADDRESSED ENVELOPE.

mansion to protest concessions to Japan in Tokyo talks seeking to normalize Japanese-Korean relations.

An army lieutenant and several soldiers were injured when the shouting mob tried to force its way toward Park's hillside mansion. The president was believed inside.

Steel-helmeted combat troops armed with rifles fired tear gas grenades into one surging crowd. The students replied with a barrage of rocks.

STUDENTS JAM AREA

About 2,000 students from Han-Yang University jammed the area and stood within arm's length of the troops, who were called out against demonstrators for the first time since Park became civilian president last December.

Another 2,000 students marched on the capitol building and sent in two representatives to Premier Choi Doo-sun with a set of questions about the Tokyo talks.

Earlier Wednesday several thousand students were blocked by riot police about 200 yards from Park's residence. Home Minister Um Min-yung conferred briefly with the leaders and led two into the presidential mansion where they saw Lee Hu-rak, the president's chief secretary.

PROMISES MEETING

The students said later they explained their demands and Lee promised to set up a meeting between Park and student leaders this week.

More than 10,000 students joined in the demonstrations, which were held for the second straight day to denounce Park's

ANCIENT SHIP
SIRACUSA Sicily (AP) — A wooden Roman sailing ship believed to date back to the 3rd or 4th century B.C. has been found in the coastal mudflats at the southeastern tip of Sicily. Ancient Rome had shipyards in that area to build fleets of vessels to supply its legions in Africa.

Abuses of Christmas reached such a pitch in 17th Century England that the Puritan Parliament outlawed the holiday in 1644. Puritan leaders in Massachusetts also banned yule celebrations from 1659 to 1681.

handling of the Tokyo talks and to demand that they be suspended. Similar demonstrations were staged in Pusan and Tae-gu, Korea's second and third largest cities.
